PRESIDENT IN BADGER STATE

Nation's Chief is Given Very Cordial Welcome to Wisconsin Capital.

IMMENSE CROWDS CHEER

Visits the Legislature and Makes a Speech from the Statehouse Steps.

Madison, Wis., April 3.—The presidential party reached this city at 4 o'clock this morniug, but it was 9 o'clock before Governor Lafollette and Mayor Groves, at the head of members of the legislature, were received. The president was escorted to the capitol through cheering crowds by a military guard, including the University of Wisconsin regiment. In the assembly chamber he addressed the two houses in joint session and 700 specially invited guests. Immediately afterward he spoke from a platform to a much larger audience which it had been impossible to accommodate inside. Then he was escorted to the executive mansion where he received state officers and members of the legislature.

GIVEN AN OVATION.

As President Roosevelt entered the assembly chamber, escorted by Governor Lafollette, he was greeted with enthusiastic cheers. Lieutenant Governor Davidson introduced him. As the president rose to speak he was greeted with a tumult of applause and the university yell, the latter feature causing him to break into a hearty laugh.

President Roosevelt said it was a good idea for students to be brought into close touch with government affairs. Universities must do more than turn out scholars—they must turn out men and women. He liked athletic work in colleges, but athletics must not interfere with the development of the mental faculties. It is a good thing to be a good halfback, but it is a mighty bad thing if at forty all you can say of him is that he was a good half-back. He adverted to the qualities necessary to good citizenship, and said we need now the same qualities to work out our salvation in peace as were needed to work out our salvation through war.

The president spoke for about fifteen minutes and then, accompanied by the governor, paid a visit to G. A. R. memorial hall in the capitol, and looked over the war relics, including a large collection of union and confederate flags, and the stuffed body of "Old Abe," the famous war eagle. He was then escorted to a stand at the east entrance, where, in the face of a raw east wind, he addressed the crowd which packed the grounds.

MAKES A SPEECH.

The president in his speech in front of the capitol at Madison said he was glad to come to Wisconsin for the fact that here the people had put into practice to a peculiar degree the principle of "All men up rather than some men down." Continuing he said:

"We are passing through a period of great material prosperity. There will be ups and downs in that prosperity, but in the long run the tide will go on if we but prove true to ourselves and to the beliefs of our forefathers. To win we must be able to combine in a proper degree the spirit of individualism and the spirit of co-operation. Each man must work for himself.

"If he cannot support himself he will be but a drag on all mankind, but each man must work for the common good. There is not a man here who does not at times need to have a helping hand extended to him and shame on the brother who will not extend that helping hand."

At the conclusion of the second speech the president was taken to the executive office, where for twenty minutes he held a reception for members of the legislature and state officers.

At 10:45, with the same escort of soldiers and officials, the president returned to the special train, which pulled out for Milwaukee at 11 o'clock.

GLAD TO SEE OVERCOATS.

Jefferson Junction, Wis., April 3.—President Roosevelt passed through here at 12:05 o'clock this afternoon. The train stopped to take water and the president addressed a few words to the 200 people who had assembled. He said that he had lived in the west and was glad to get back again into a country where he could see a few overcoats.

ARRIVES IN MILWAUKEE.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 3.—President Roosevelt's train reached Milwaukee over the Chicago and Northeastern road at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The program of the day calls for a ten mile drive to the soldiers' home, an address there by the president, a public meeting at the exposition building, reception at the Deutcher and Milwaukee Press clubs and a banquet tonight.

CHOLERA DISAPPEARING.

Washington, April 3.—A health report from General Davis at Manila dated yesterday shows that there is a steady improvement in the health of the troops there and cholera has almost disappeared. There was only one death from cholera for the week.

FOUR MINERS KILLED BY A FALL OF ROCK

Mine Near Dubois, Pa., Always Considered Safe, Has a Fatal Accident.

Dubois, Pa., April 3.—Four men were killed and several injured at London mine near here today by a fall of rock and earth. The dead are:

Earl Waggett.
Edward Fye.
George Truax.
William Phipps.

One boy had a leg broken, another his back injured and several others slightly injured. The dead are well known young men of this place and all were married except Waggett. This mine has been considered exceptionally safe to work in and had been free from accidents for a number of years.

WILL ADD $250,000 TO ITS CIRCULATION

First National Bank Decides Upon Quarter of a Million Increase.

The First National Bank of Fort Wayne has just detrmined upon a big increase in its circulation that will bring the total issue of the bank's notes up to $300,000.

Arrangements have been made for the purchase of $250,000 more of government bonds, which will permit the increase in circulation, heretofore restricted to $50,000. Application has been made at Washington for the new issue, which, it is expected, will be made within the next sixty days. Up to this time the notes of the First National have been only of the $10 and $20 denominations, but under the new issue there will be $5's, $50's and $100's in addition to the earlier denominations.

Within a short time also the bank will make extensive improvements in its banking house, redecorating the walls and ceilings, brightening the furniture, placing new gold-leaf signs upon the windows and otherwise beautifying the home of the big financial institution.

DEMANDS AN INVENTORY.

New York, April 3.—Action was begun before Surrogate Fitzgerald today by G. Emily Reynolds, of Washington, who holds ten shares of the Central Pacific railroad stock, to compel the executors of the estate of the late Collis P. Huntington to file an inventory of his estate, said to be valued at $27,000,000 to $30,000,000. The action grows out of a suit for an accounting of $120,000,000 said to have been realized from the contracts for the building of the Central Pacific railroad and to have been diverted from the stockholders by Huntington, Leland Stanford, Charles Crocker and Mark Hopkins.

SLAIN BY A POLICEMAN.

Chicago, Ill., April 3.—James Farrell was shot and killed early today in a hand to hand struggle with a policeman, who surprised him in the act of forcing an entrance into a south side residence. Farrell, who is believed to be an ex-convict, was on a ladder trying to open a second story window. Several shots were exchanged and the two men clinched, the encounter ending by the would-be burglar receiving a bullet in his head.

The officers of Plymouth Congregational church and their wives will be entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. Webster Bailey this evening.

BULGARIANS AND TURKS IN BATTLE

Big Engagement Fought in the Okhrida District and 1,000 Men Fall.

THE BULGARIAN RISING

Surround Turkish Troops in the Mountains—Disorder is Spreading.

Berlin, April 3.—A dispatch from Constantinople to the Lokal Anzeiger, dated noon today, announces that the Bulgarian bands and Turkish troops in the Okhrida district have fought a battle, and that 1,000 men were killed or wounded.

UPRISING IS SPREADING.

Constantinople, April 3.—Official advices from Monastir say the Bulgarian inhabitants of thirty villages in the Okhrida district, totalling three thousand men and supported by the bishop and a number of revolutionary bands, have risen against the Turks. They surrounded a small detachment of Turkish troops in the mountains northward of Okhrida, but the troops succeeded in cutting their way out after sustaining considerable loss.

Another dynamite outrage at the town of Mustahpha Pacha has led to the discovery that the revolutionary committee is supposed to be responsible for the attempt to wreck the oriental express early in the morning of March 31, when the bridge of the Turkish Oriental railroad between Adrianople and Mustahpha Pacha was blown up by an infernal machine.

Although affairs at Mitrovitza and Prishtina are reported to be calmer the rising of the Albanians in those districts creates intense concern at the palace, among the ministers and at the ambassies. It is felt that a continuation of the troubles in the vicinity of Sandjak and Novi Bazar is liable to lead at any moment to an extension of Austrian occupation over the entire district and as far as Mitrovitza, although it is believed that nothing short of absolute necessity will induce Austria to take advantage of this right, which is reserved to her by the treaty of Berlin.

RAILROAD BRIDGE BLOWN UP.

Salonica, April 3.—The railroad bridge over the Angista river near Drama was blown up by Bulgarians during the night of April 1. All the telegraph wires in the vicinity have been cut. Drama is about thirty miles from Seres, Macedonia.

WILL DOCK A WARSHIP.

Washington, April 3.—Acting Secretary of the Navy Darling has approved the recommendations for the docking of the battleship Illinois at the New Orleans yard this month, although the bureau of navigation would have preferred the vessel to go to another yard. For some time there has been some uncertainty about the capacity of the New Orleans dock, some officials of the department being averse to its use for large battleships. The acting secretary desires that this question be settled once and for all and this will furnish a test of the dock's worth. If the battleship can be accommodated easily it will result in the more frequent use of the dock for vessels of a similar type.

FREE TRADE DECREE.

Washington, April 3.—Advices to the state department from Consul General Seeger at Rio de Janeiro state that a ministerial decree abolishing transit duties on Bolivian commerce by way of the Amazon has been issued by the government. This re-establishment of free transit between Brazil and Bolivia is declared despite the fact that there is no treaty of commerce and navigation between the countries. Importation of war material to Bolivia through Brazilian rivers, however, is still prohibited.

SAYS HE WAS BEATEN AND ROBBED OF MONEY

George Bouvier, at Edgerton, Badly Hurt—Assailants Escape to Ohio.

There was a bloody fight at Edgerton Thursday night in which George Bouvier was badly beaten by Frank Hammond and Lou Boner who, Bouvier claims, robbed him of $52 and then escaped across the Ohio state line. Deputies Reichelderfer and Huguenard went out to Edgerton last night, but failed to get their men, who were out of their jurisdiction.

Bouvier is a junk dealer and according to his story drove to his barn last night at about 7:30 and was putting up his horse when the two men came to him. One of them represented that he was an officer and had come to arrest him. Bouvier expressed a willingness to go with them as soon as he had put up his horse and see what the trouble was. Then, he says, the men jumped onto him without any further provocation and knocked him down. He was dragged out into the yard, where he was mercilessly beaten after which his pockets were rifled and $52 taken therefrom by the two men, who then ran away. Bouvier says he was hit with a stone and a bloody half of a brick found near his cap, which was lying on the ground, seemed to corroborate his story. He was badly used up and was placed under the care of Dr. McClure, who says his injuries are very severe if not serious, his face and head being beaten into a jelly.

Bouvier says he knows of no motive for the attack unless it was robbery, as it is well known that he frequently carries as much as $50 with him which he uses in his business. Intelligence of the assault was telephoned in last night, and the two deputies at once left for the place during the darkest night, they say, they had ever been out in. They found that their men had gone across the state line and they returned to the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Weaver have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Miss Florence Quivey, to Edgar H. Schiefer. The wedding will occur Wednesday afternoon, April 8, at 4 o'clock.

FIFTY MEN ARE ENTOMBED IN MINE

Frightful Explosion in Shaft of Anthracite Mine at Wilkesbarre.

THE CAUSE IS UNKNOWN

Fifty Men Were at Work in the Shaft and All are Thought to be Imprisoned.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 3.—South Wilkesbarre shaft of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal company was this afternoon the scene of an explosion which according to all accounts obtainable, is one of the worst that has occurred in the anthracite region for some time.

The explosion occurred in the No. 3 lift of No. 10 slope and fifty men who went into that portion of the mine to work this morning are supposed at this writing to be entombed somewhere beneath the surface.

Just how the explosion occurred is not known. Details are very meager at present and even the officials of the company are very much in the dark.

Crowds of excited people are standing around the fence enclosure of the mine eagerly waiting for words of hope from the bottom of the mine.

DETAILS ARE LACKING.

At 2:45 o'clock the explosion occurred and word was at once sent to the offices of the company in the central part of the city to the effect that the mine was in trouble. A superintendent was asked for and one was sent to the operation at once. Further than this details at the offices were lacking.

As soon as the accident occurred Outside Foreman Peck ordered the gates of the fence closed and would allow no persons to enter the place, so that the work of rescue would not be hampered.

Officials at the mine stated that there were about fifty men at work in this portion of the mine usually, and that as far as they know none of them had come out during the day. Fears are entertained that all fifty are entombed in the mine.

CANNOT REACH THEM.

Attempts have been made to reach them, but to no avail, the after damp and gas being too heavy. One effort to reach the affected part of the mine was made through the No. 3 slope, but failed. When the party had reached a distance about half way down the slope they were forced to retreat by the gas.

Not despairing of finally reaching the men in some way, Outside Foreman Peck and Inside Foreman William Evans have taken a selected gang of expert men into the mine in an endeavor to work their way to the section where the explosion is supposed to have occurred.

WILL TAKE MUCH TIME.

Cars of lumber to be used as brattices are being lowered into the shaft and it is evidently the plan of the rescuers to construct air courses and in that manner drive the foul air before them. This method, if followed, will consume considerable time and it may be hours before the entombed men are reached.

Thousands of people attracted by the news of the accident have flocked to the scene and the hills east of the colliery are covered with people.

This mine is one of the most gaseous in the entire valley and has long been regarded as a dangerous operation.

FIRST BRIDGE COMPLETED.

The first bridge along the right-of-way of the Fort Wayne, Van Wert and Lima Electric railway—a fifty-two foot structure, which spans the stream known as Six-Mile creek, half a mile west of New Haven, has just been completed. The bridge is of stone and concrete and most substantial in character. Abutments are in for a large number of bridges along the line, and ties have already been delivered at New Haven and Delphos.

JAMES HARTNETT DIES FROM CANCER

End Came This Afternoon—Was Long Shop Yard Foreman for the Wabash.

James Hartnett, well known among Fort Wayne railroad men and for many years shop yard foreman for the Wabash company, died at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at his home, 1711 Webster street, after an extended illness from cancer. Mr. Hartnett had been in a critical condition for several weeks, and firends realized that the end could not be long deferred.

Mr. Hartnett was forty-seven years of age. He was born at Tiffin, Ohio, and came to Fort Wayne in 1872. He began his railroad career as a switchman on the Lake Erie and Western railroad and then went to the Grand Rapids and Indiana as a brakeman. On January 4, 1884, he received an appointment as yard foreman at the shops and assistant storekeeper for the Wabash company, a position he retained until his death. His failing health compelled him to relinquish active duties in October last, however, and he had not been able to work since that time.

Mr. Hartnett was married in this city nineteen years ago to Miss Margaret Petgen, who, with four daughters, survives. The daughters are the Misses Mary, Ella, Celia and Margaret Hartnett. Mrs. John H. Sullivan, of Chicago, a sister, is the only other immediate relative.

Mr. Hartnett was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic church, and was also identified with Fort Wayne lodge No. 19, A. O. U. W., of which he was a past master workman.

The funeral arrangements have not been concluded.

TAKE OVER SOUTHERN PACIFIC POOL STOCK

Morgan & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Reported Have the Keene Holdings.

New York, April 3.—It was rumored in Wall street late this afternoon that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and J. P. Morgan & Co. had taken over the pool stock in Southern Pacific. This pool was in charge of James R. Keene. Talbot J. Taylor, Mr. Keene's son-in-law, and his broker, said he did not believe that the report was true. A sudden recovery in Southern Pacific stock from 55¼ to 60½ was attributed to the arrangement alleged to have been made.

MAY BE INSANE.

Justice Skelton and Drs. Nieschang and Buchman will this evening inquire into the sanity of Mrs. Lucy Hepner, wife of Fred Hepner, of 614 Clinton street, recently removed here from Goshen, and a relative of L. J. Libbing. The woman is 20 years of age and labors under the delusion that someone is after her trying to do her bodily injury.

HE SANK UNCONSCIOUS.

Michael Dagen, about forty-five years of age, concerning whom little appears to be known, became suddenly ill in the street near the Rich hotel this morning and sank unconscious to the pavement. The man was carried into the hotel and later was removed to Hope hospital, where he is under the care of Dr. Schilling. The man is suffering from heart failure, but his condition is not regarded as critical.

Mrs. H. S. Wills goes to Chicago tomorrow for a visit of two weeks with Mr. Wills' parents and other relatives.

NO DECISION IN MERGER MATTERS

Street Railway Men Adjourn Without Conclusion as to Interurbans.

MEET AT PHILADELPHIA

To Take It Up-- Inspection of the Southwestern--Mr. Scott Will Remain.

Without definite conclusion concerning the proposed merging of extensive interurban railway interests with those of the Fort Wayne city lines, the meeting of street railway men came to a close Thursday evening shortly before 6 o'clock, after a busy session of two days' duration.

The consolidation of the interurban and city lines under the control of one vast company, which has been generally accepted as the probable program of the new syndicate, was taken up and discussed in a general way at considerable length. There was an extended examination of maps and profiles of proposed routes, as well as those already constructed upon which the syndicate is believed to have options, but beyond this, absolutely nothing was done, it is stated, regarding the interurban matter. The decision was deferred until another meeting of the members of the syndicate is held in Philadelphia week after next.

OVER THE SOUTHWESTERN.

Col. J. Levering Jones and Bayard Henry, who represent the eastern interest in the proposition, left last evening over the limited at 9:15 for Philadelphia. This morning at 8:10 o'clock, in special car No. 304, the remaining members of the party, with the exception of Senator Fleming, who was detained in the city by other business matters, left over the Southwestern for Wabash for an inspection of the Canal Route line. General Manager Nelson accompanied the party, which was made up of George F. McCulloch, Hon. James and Charles Murdock and Henry C. Paul. At Wabash Mr. McCulloch took a train for Indianapolis, the Messrs. Murdock continued on their return to Lafayette, and late this afternoon Mr. Paul and Mr. Nelson returned to this city.

MR. SCOTT WILL REMAIN.

Previous to the adjournment Thursday evening the new company made arrangements with A. L. Scott by which he will remain as general manager of the property. Mr. Scott's ability as a street railway man is very generally recognized, but there was a belief in some quarters that he might resign, as it is known that a Chicago concern has repeatedly made him offers that are most tempting in the matter of salary.

C. D. Emmons, who has for some years been at the head of the electrical construction department of the street railway system at Lafayette, will come to Fort Wayne as chief electrical engineer of the system. Mr. Emmons will assume his new position at once.

Manager Scott, who has practically all the material already upon the ground, will proceed at once with the work of extending the lines in conformity with the new franchise granted the company some months ago. The directors announced a willingness to construct a double track on West Main street from Broadway to the river bridge if the citizens desire it. This improvement was suggested some days ago by a petition of citizens to the board of public works.

The work of the directors Thursday was practically of the same character as that of the previous day, and the books, accounts, inventories and schedules of the company were gone over thoroughly in order to familiarize the new directors with the condition of the property, but there was no trip over the city lines for the purpose of inspection. It was discovered that the old company had never formulated a series of by-laws for its government, and this duty was entrusted to Mr. Jones. Mr. Fleming will be unable to attend the coming meeting at Philadelphia on account of a previous business engagement elsewhere, and Mr. Paul will represent the Fort Wayne stockholders at that meeting.

Mrs. Charles Schroeder, of Washington boulevard, entertained a large party of ladies at progressive pedro Thursday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. Raqurt and Miss Gesine Rippe, and the booby prizes were awarded to Mrs. W. P. Kindt and Miss Bertha Gaetje. Light refreshments were served after the games.

FIRST BALDWIN WELL MAKES GOOD SHOWING

New Well Successfully Shot and a 75-Barrel Producer Comes In.

The first well of the Baldwin Oil and Gas company, composed mainly of Fort Wayne gentlemen, was shot yesterday afternoon on the Tillman farm, near Baldwin, in the extreme eastern part of the county. The result showed a producer which the experts say is good for at least seventy-five barrels per day.

"Well, George, you seem to be the lucky one, so I guess you'll want to drop the go-devil," said Well Contractor "Drummy" Rhodes about 3:30, just a few minutes before the well was shot. George Jaap peered anxiously into the hole in front of him, sized up the twenty-pound triangular shaped bit of iron, and responded, "I'll just go you; I'll bring up something." The crowd was moved back several hundred feet, Jaap fitted the go-devil to the hole, let go and leisurely walked back to a place of safety. A few seconds later there was a muffled crack—just a wee-bit of an explosion, such as made by a target rifle fired at a distance; one of the drillers remained at the hole five seconds more and then moved away rapidly, and all that could be done in developing the first well in that territory was over. To the assembled crowd of several hundred people it seemed an awful long while before any results from the shot were apparent.

Fully ten seconds had elapsed after the last man left the derrick before somebody yelled, "There she comes," and the well commenced to belch. The column of water rose lazily, first just bubbling out of the well, gradually but slowly rising higher and higher like a fountain just being turned on, until finally there was a roar as the column of water, gas, oil and debris shot up through the derrick, tattering the American flag which floated at the top exactly ninety-nine feet above the floor of the derrick, and shooting fully twenty-five feet out through the top. There was a hail of small stones, jagged tin from the glycerine can, pieces of go-devil torn to fragments, and a deluge of water and spray which the strong southwest wind carried a hundred yards over across the field.

The eruption continued fully a minute before the confined energy released from the charge of 200 quarts of nitro-glycerine had expended itself and the drillers re-entered the derrick. The inside of the structure was spattered with water and oil and little rivulets which ran out into the field were mixed with oil, a strong flow of gas coming up from the bowels of the earth. There was nothing to indicate then that the shot had been a success and the novices predicted that a good gas well without oil had been struck.

Contractor Rhodes said nothing, but with his men at once commenced getting the ponderous drill ready to lower into the well to a depth of nearly 1,500 feet to clear away the effects of the terrific explosion below, which was barely heard and not felt on the surface.

The drill, weighing several tons, was lowered and after about fifteen minutes' work the signal to hoist was given. The heavy cable was run out rapidly and when about 300 feet had been coiled on the windlass Rhodes cried out: "There you are," as the cable came out dripping with a heavy grade of oil, black as tar and almost as thick.

Eleven hundred feet of cable was wound out before the drill came in sight, while the oil was flowing from the floor of the derrick in little streams as it dripped from the drill and rope. This showed that within thirty minutes of the shot 1,100 feet of oil had accumulated in the well and a big sigh of relief went up from the stockholders, most of whom were present, to know that the well was a success and the prospects were excellent. It was then explained that while the well showed 1,100 feet of oil, there was some water mixed with it, which made it so much the better, since the oil had to come up through a weight of a column of water at least 300 feet high, showing a strong head.

The crowd then dispersed, but the drillers and owners remained for two hours waiting for the water and oil to separate, when a preliminary measurement was taken. This showed superficially that the well had a capacity of at least seventy-five barrels a day. Pumping machinery and casing had already been ordered and is expected to arrive today, when it will be immediately installed, and not until then can the actual and accurate measurement of the capacity be determined. The company is highly gratified at the result and will immediately proceed to sink another well about 300 yards from the first one, which is half a mile south of Baldwin and on the Ohio side of the street which marks the state line.

It was a great day for Baldwin and the entire population of the city and surrounding country had turned out to witness the great event. Several things are necessary to successfully shoot an oil well. First, there must be two bottles of whisky and a box of cigars, and then there must be a long hole set up on end; then comes some more whisky and 200 quarts of nitro-glycerine; then a lot of women with babies to stand in the way of the drillers, and, lastly, a go-devil. All these were present in full force yesterday, which accounts for the success of the event. After the shot the Fort Wayne crowd went back to the city proper to read the stock reports in the two saloons, and incidentally were regaled by half a dozen natives of Baldwin, who wanted to lick a long-legged marshal in blue clothes who came over from Payne.

Among the officers and stockholders of the company are: John Tillman, president; George Jaap, secretary; James Goodfellow, treasurer; James Maloney, William Goodfellow, William Funk, Mayor H. C. Berghoff, "Chic" Stahl, Timothy Foohey, William Hunchey and others.

HEROIC GIRL TRIED TO SAVE AN OLD MAN

None of Those Who Heard the Call for Help Answered—Death in Fire.

New York, April 3.—At least two persons are known to have been killed and several persons hurt at a fire today in a six-story tenement house in Henry street, on the east side. Firemen found a dead body on the top floor so badly burned they could not at first tell whether it was the body of a woman or a man. The twenty-four families in the building were greatly excited and one woman, Mrs. Greenfield, 60 years old, jumped from the second story. A fireman caught the woman in his arms, but she knocked him down. Her legs were broken and she was badly hurt. Another fireman was severely hurt while carrying a woman and child down a ladder.

The body found was that of Harris Rothstein, 84 years of age, an invalid. The building was being renovated for the feast of the Passover and painters were at work in the halls and rooms. A similar fire occurred on Rivington street last night. When the cry of fire was heard throughout the house there was only a fourteen-year-old girl and the invalid in the Rathstein apartments, which are on the third floor. The little girl dragged the old man up three flights of stairs and was trying to get him up the ladder leading to the roof when scorched by the flames and choking with smoke she was forced to abandon him. Men and women who were passing them on their way to safety took no notice of their appeal for help.

After the fire a body, apparently that of a woman, was found among some debris. The body was so badly burned that it could not be recognized. The property loss is small.

SCIENTISTS' DISCUSSIONS.

Philadelphia, April 3.—A discussion of the Franklin manuscripts was a feature of today's session of the American Philosophical society's annual meeting. Problems in mechanics and higher mathematics also engaged the attention of the members. Joseph G. Rosengarten, a trustee of the University of Pennsylvania, read an address on "The Franklin Papers in the Library of the American Philosophical Society." Other speakers were Charles E. Brooks, Baltimore; Prof. P. A. Lambert, Bethlehem, Pa., and Prof. Ernest Brown, of Haverford college.

HOLDS THAT WIFE IS NOT A MERE ASSET

Appellate Court Makes Ruling in Important Case—Some Other Decisions.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 3.—Persons contemplating matrimony for no other purpose than to gain a valuable form of commercial paper in the shape of a wife may feel discouraged over an interesting decision made by the appellate court yesterday. The court held that no man has the right to assign his wife's life insurance policy as security for his own debts.

Bernard Ryder, of Fulton county, held a policy on the life of his wife, Catherine Ryder, in which he was named as beneficiary. In 1886, with the consent of the Aetna Life Insurance company, Ryder assigned the policy to Harvey Thornburgh because Thornburgh had become surety on certain promissory notes Ryder had given.

With the policy in full force, Mr. Ryder died in 1900. Ryder was insolvent and Thornburgh's heirs sued the life insurance company upon the policy. Ryder was made a co-defendant. He filed a cross-complaint, and the court found that the amount of the policy belonged to him. The appellate court reverses this finding.

The appellate court holds that a husband who has a paid-up policy on his wife's life cannot, during the life of the insured, assign it to a third person, who has no insurable interest in the life insured, for the purpose of indemnifying the assignee as surety for the holding of the policy. The court held such procedure to be against public policy.

COUNTY AUDITOR'S CASE.

A petition is on file in the supreme court for a rehearing of the case of Seiler vs. the state ex rel. the board of commissioners of DeKalb county. This was a test suit to determine the right of auditors to receive $3 a day, in addition to other pay, for sitting on boards of review. The decision made some time ago gives the auditor that right, but yesterday Judge Dowling filed a dissenting opinion, in which he is joined by Judge Monks.

Judge Dowling says that under the act of March 1, 1895, the county auditor was not entitled to a per diem for his services on the board of review, and that, even if he had been, his right to receive it was taken away by the statute of March 11, 1895, the general fee and salary law.

The judge declares that the Indiana supreme court is "committed to the principle of the strict construction of statutes regulating the fees, salaries and compensation of public officers. * * * Doubts are to be resolved in favor of the public and against the officer; constructive services and constructive fees are unknown to the law of this state, and double compensation for official services is not to be tolerated."

Judge Dowling says the legislature at all times had the power to increase or diminsh the duties of the auditor, treasurer and assessor, salaried officers.

He resorts to grammar to show that "who shall each be paid out of the county treasury the sum of $3 for each and every day," etc., refers to "two freeholders," and not to assessor, auditor and treasurer.

The law reads: "Such board shall be composed of the county assessor, county auditor and county treasurer, and two freeholders, to be appointed by the judge of the circuit court, who shall each be paid," etc. The judge reasons that the interposition of "and" between the words "county auditor" and "county treasurer" indicated that as to those officers the sentence was complete.

He argues that even if he is not right on this point the act of March 11, 1895, taking all fees from the county auditor, must prevail over the act of March 1.

NOTES FOR SALOON LICENSES.

In the case of Hosea H. Ristine against Dora Clements and others, the appellate court held yesterday that a note given in payment for a saloon license is without consideration and such license is void.

Robert Clements ran a saloon in Ladoga for some time without a license. The town attorney prevailed upon him to give his note and mortgage to the town to secure the license.

"It is true," says Judge Robinson in the opinion, "that a municipal corporation has the power to receive as payee a note and mortgage for a debt lawfully due to such corporation.

"But a license fee, the payment of which is a condition precedent to issuing the license, is in no sense a debt owing the municipality. The fact that he had been selling for some months without a license did not make him indebted to the town for the license fee. * * * The primary purpose in exacting the license fee is not to increase the revenue of the municipality, but it is imposed from motives of public policy to restrain the sale of a commodity that is harmful to society."

WOUNDS ARE NOT FATAL.

New York, April 3.—Col. L. L. Leonard, the aged confederate army veteran, who yesterday made an ante-mortem statement to the coroner while supposed to be dying of wounds inflicted in a quarrel, is today reported to be in no immediate danger of death.

GIVES RELIEF QUICKLY.

Regular Use of Hyomei Cures Most Stubborn Case of Catarrh.

No other medicine gives such prompt relief as Hyomei in the treatment of catarrh.

The first breath of this remedy soothes and heals the irritated and smarting air passages, and the regular use for a few days or weeks will cure the most stubborn case. Some of the reports from those who have been cured of catarrh by Hyomei read like miracles.

John S. Gray, of Richmond Hills, Pa., writes: "I am 82 years old and have been a sufferer with catarrh in the head for 25 or 30 years. I have doctored with many specialists and they all told me that the disease was incurable on account of my age. After using Hyomei a short time I was greatly benefited and can now say that I am entirely cured. It has been six months since I stopped using the remedy and I still remain cured."

In nearly every town and village of the country can be found those who have been cured of catarrh by Hyomei. In Fort Wayne there are probably over a thousand people whose health has been restored by this remarkable treatment.

Meyer Bros. & Co. sold package after package and every one has been with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it did not cure. Only two outfits have been returned and in each instance the money was paid back without question.

You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomei and your word decides the question as to whether you pay for the remedy or not.

Can you afford to suffer longer with catarrh when you can buy a guaranteed treatment on this plan?

Goshen Democrat: Rev. D. A. Kuhn, formerly of Middlebury and for a couple of years past a resident of Goshen, is packing his household goods for shipment to Monroeville, where he will move in about two weeks. Monroeville is a small place on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, east of Fort Wayne, and Rev. Kuhn has a church there.

The oldest, safest, strongest, Sarsaparilla you can buy

"I remember well when I first used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, nearly 60 years ago. I was thin, pale, weak, tired all the time, no appetite, could not play as the other boys did.

"Since then I have taken it many times, especially when overworked, tired out, or nervously depressed. Now, all my children and their children use it. As a medicine for the whole family it has no equal.

"I long ago learned the first great rule of health—keep the bowels regular—so I am never without Ayer's Pills." J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

NOCTURNE SOCIETY'S INITIAL RECITAL

Fine Program Given in Anthony Wayne Club Last Night Before 200 Guests

The Nocturne Musical society gave its first recital last evening in the Anthony Wayne club before a gathering of about two hundred invited guests. Before the opening number, Charles McCulloch, president of the society, spoke briefly of the aims of the society, referring to the excellent work of the Morning Musical society and speaking of the opportunities of the two societies to elevate the musical spirit in the city by working in harmony. The following program was rendered at the close of Mr. McCulloch's address:

1. (a) Chopin .....
..... Nocturne, C sharp minor
(b) Grieg .. March of the Dwarfs
Mrs. D. F. Urbahns.

CRIME OF JEALOUS HUSBAND.

Connersville, Ind., April 3.—William Smith, aged 29 years, shot and fatally wounded his wife and then sent two bullets through his own body. It is expected both will die. Smith went home in an intoxicated condition, and in a jealous rage he fired three shots at his wife, each one taking effect. He then turned his revolver at his father-in-law, with the intention of killing him, but the older man wrested the weapon from Smith and forced him out in the yard. Smith then borrowed a revolver from a neighbor and going back home endeavored to obtain admittance, but after several unsuccessful attempts he placed the weapon against his own breast and fired twice, inflicting fatal wounds. He was found unconscious soon after by the police, who took him to jail. His wife left him about six weeks ago after his threatening to kill her on several occasions, and had just returned to him last Friday upon his promise to stop drinking.

Mrs. H. Hamilton is visiting in Columbia City.

REBUILT BOTH.

A Change in Food Can Do Wonders.

When a change in food and drink will totally make over people it is worth while knowing the kind of food and drink used, particularly when in the making over the old aches, ails and diseases are eliminated.

A lady in Louisville, Neb., says: "Husband and I were both coffee drinkers. He was always troubled with dyspepsia and I had, in addition to stomach trouble, serious bowel disorder and was so terribly nervous that I would scream at the slightest noise.

"The pain in my stomach continued from morning till 3 or 4 o'clock in the afternoon. I was so tired all the time and never could get rested, it was all I could do to drag about. My nervousness kept increasing until finally the doctor said I must be taken to a different climate, because I was getting weaker all the time and then could hardly walk across the room.

"I had read many testimonials of the good that Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee were doing for people, but never thought they applied to me. However, my ever kind husband one night brought home a package of each. I had tried to quit coffee, but every time a terrible pain would come in my head after each meal.

"I had no faith in your food and drink helping me, but to please husband I tried the Food Coffee and the Grape-Nuts. Postum satisfied my taste and I loved Grape-Nuts breakfast food with good cream.

"In a day or two I began to improve. That was seven months ago. My improvement has been so steady that now, instead of being a miserable, nervous wreck, I am a strong, healthy woman, weighing 140 pounds, can work from daylight till dark with a life and spring about me that I have never had.

"I use two pounds of Grape-Nuts each week and drink Postum Food Coffee twice a day, and expect to as long as I live, for it has been a godsend to me and mine.

"Husband quit coffee and took up Postum when I did. His dyspepsia entirely disappeared and he has never had a return of it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

JUDGE HENCH'S SUGGESTION.

(Indianapolis News.)

Judge Samuel M. Hench, of Fort Wayne, who is stopping at the Hotel English, has suggested a democratic national ticket that has the stamp of originality. He proposes George B. McClellan, of New York, for president, and former Governor Hogg, of Texas, for vice president.

He thinks the candidate for president should come from the east and the candidate for vice president from the south. He merely suggested the name of Hogg as a "feeler." He has just returned from a trip to Texas, and he said he found that Hogg is immensely popular.

Hench is now being talked of as a candidate for the nomination for congress in the Twelfth district. It is understood that a number of Fort Wayne democrats who don't like Congressman Robinson want to bring out Hench. The latter is one of the best known democrats of the Twelfth, and the enemies of Robinson believe he can be nominated.

TRUCK TEAM RUNS AWAY.

A Lakeside car struck a City Trucking company wagon loaded with brush on Columbia street, near Barr, last night, shoving the wagon against the horses and causing them to run away. The horses ran south and ran into the front of car No. 101, the "hoodoo," of the Lakeside line, which was standing on the Lafayette street switch. The fender of the car was torn off and the vestibule was damaged. The horses continued their flight eastward along Columbia street into Lakeside.

THE VIGOROUS MAN IS A LEADER OF MEN

The Mental, Moral, Physical or Sexual Wreck Has No Place in the Business World.

Dr. A. W. CHASE NERVE PILLS

Give to Every Man the Power to Think, to Work, to Act and to Do His Duty as a Man by Supplying to the System an Abundance of the Two Great Essentials of Life—Good Rich Blood and Nerve Force.

The man who hesitates, whose eye is dull, whose step is slow, whose mind is sluggish, whose hands tremble is not the man whom an employer seeks. It is the bright man, the man with the clear eye and brain, the active man, full of energy, life and vigor, whose very manner and presence breeds success that is sought for and snapped up as soon as seen, and it seems almost pitiful that the first class, victims of excess of some sort should exist when it needs but a thorough course of the Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to round them into the old time feeling of physical, intellectual and manly vigor again.

Mr. Robert Dildin of No. 8 Ulster St., Waverly, N. Y., says: Some time ago I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and when I say they have done me good, I can back up that statement by an increase in weight from 128 to 144 pounds in thirty days. When I began to take the medicine I was all run down and it is a wonder I kept at work at all—could not sleep—appetite poor, and when at work if I stooped over to pick up anything, I would be so dizzy that for a few moments I could scarcely realize anything and frequently I had attacks of severe pain in the region of my heart. This condition had lasted for a long time and nothing I took gave more then temporary relief until I used the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills. They proved to be the true Nerve Force builder and it is as a result of their use alone that I today feel as well and sound as ever—no trouble of any kind but hearty, strong and vigorous in every way.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS—Signature and portrait of Dr. A. W. Chase on each box of the genuine. For sale by dealers, 50c. a box, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., No. 257 Washington Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Zest is early given the municipal campaign in Indianapolis by charges that there is a well-fatted scandal in the department of the board of public works. This seems to promise strenuousness when the democrats get a city ticket in the field, which, by the way, they have not yet begun to make preparations to do.

Democrats have some good material from which to make up the councilmanic ticket and if the best is chosen today the ticket will be satisfactory. Let the best men be selected at the primaries. Good politics means above all things good citizenship and that must always rest on the choice of good men for office.

It begins to look as though even the high and mighty had the common human dread of the house-cleaning season. President Roosevelt is hiking off across the country to the far west, King Edward has sloped from England to Portugal, and William of Germany has taken a run up to Copenhagen to look in on King Christian. The czar would be preparing to dig out for Rome were he not in fear of worse things than the ripping up of the palace carpets.

Col. Charles E. Wilson, who for six years has served as private secretary to governors of Indiana—during Governor Mount's entire term and two years in Governor Durbin's term—will next Monday resume the managing editorship of the Lafayette Courier, a position he relinquished when he went to Indianapolis. Colonel Wilson is one of the ablest newspaper men in the state, is a scholarly and forceful writer and a leader in his party. He will be welcomed back to the profession which he so long ornamented.

Municipal elections in two of the country's large cities, next Tuesday, will command general interest. In Chicago Carter H. Harrison is making his fourth race for mayor and the outlook for him is worse than it has been at any time since his first campaign six years ago. Nominally a republican city, Chicago has hitherto given Harrison large majorities. The forecasters have his majority cut down to a low figure and in some instances wiped out altogether. In Cleveland Tom L. Johnson is making a hard fight against strenuous opposition. Upon his success or failure will largely hinge his position as a democratic presidential candidate. However, local conditions govern almost entirely in both cities and no general political significance can attach to results in either, though in Johnson's case personal prestige stands to be augmented or sacrificed upon the issue of the campaign.

A republican exchange points to the recent great increase of immigration as one of the signs of the beneficence of the protective tariff. If it is the tariff that is inducing this immigration it cannot be too quickly modified. The class of immigrants now pouring into this country at the rate of over three-quarters of a million a year is not a desirable addition to our population. They are the riff-raff of southern Europe, for the most part, and not of a kind to be easily assimilated. They are turbulent, ignorant, degraded, to a revolting degree afflicted with disease and generally pauperized when they arrive. Wherever they are colonized, in the cities or in the mining regions, they breed trouble and disorder. There is yet room in America for hundreds of thousands of immigrants of the kind who came from Ireland, Germany and Scandinavia years ago. Those elements have strengthened the citizenship of the country. They have been thrifty, intelligent and progressive. They have quickly imbibed the American spirit and in all but birth have become Americans. Not so the classes now coming, which should be kept, or at least, restricted.

STORM SWEEPS MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Mich., April 3.—A severe wind and snow storm is general all over the Peninsula of Michigan today. The steamer Soo City arrived at Benton Harbor from Chicago three hours late today, after a hard battle with the storm on Lake Michigan. Thus far no reports of damage to the peach or other fruit crops have been received. In the eastern part of the state the snow was preceded by rain and heavy hail.

APOLOGIZES TO RUSSIA.

Milan, April 3.—The prefect has apologized to the Russian consul here for the demonstration made by a number of socialists Wednesday evening before the consulate of Russia during which a stone was hurled at the escutcheon of the consulate and its flagstaff was broken. The consul said he recognized that the affair was due to a small, disorderly faction of the people.

STORM ISOLATES CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 3.—This city was almost entirely cut off from telegraphic communication with the outside world this morning as the result of a storm. Accompanied by a high northeast gale, a heavy fall of wet snow caused telegraph wires to go down in all directions. The temperature was slightly above the freezing point. Danger signals are displayed on the lake and vessels have been warned not to venture out.

Official weather predictions are for a continuance of the storm throughout the day and tonight.

PIONEER VERY ILL.

Friends in the city have been advised of the critical illness of Mrs. Nancy Opliger, a pioneer resident of this county, who has for some years been making his home with a son-in-law, John Cook, near Wallen. Mrs. Opliger is nearly 90 years of age, and has long been a sufferer from heart trouble.

PLUMBERS' STRIKE ADJUSTED.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 3.—The plumbers' strike, which has been in effect the last two days, has been adjusted and most of the men returned to work today. The terms of the settlement were not made public.

WILL MAKE NAVAL DISPLAY.

Rome, April 3.—The newspapers here announce that Italy will make a notable naval display at Algiers on the occasion of the visit of President Loubet to that port. Later the Italian squadron will go to Naples, where there will be another large gathering of warships on the occasion of the visit of King Edward to Italy.

Ralph Petgen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petgen, of Baker street, was operated upon for appendicitis at St. Joseph hospital yesterday.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP OF LIGHTING PLANT

To the Editor of The Sentinel: Please publish the following for the benefit of the public:

—City Democratic Platform, May, 1901.—

"We declare ourselves in favor of the city owning and operating its electrical lighting plant and pledge ourselves to the erection and the equipment of such a plant at as early a day as the finances of the city administration with that object in view will permit; said plant to be in operation, if possible, at the time of the expiration of the coming administration."

Candidates for the common council. Interview in Journal-Gazette, May 5th, 1901:

—G. R. Hench—First Ward.—

"I have always been one of the advocates of municipal ownership of the lighting plant, and I am in favor of the city going into commercial, as well as street lighting. The plant should be erected as soon as possible, raising the levy for the purpose, if necessary, so that when the contract with the Jenney company expires we may go into business immediately."

E. J. Ehrman—First Ward.—

"I hope to be able to assist in installing the city's municipal lighting plant. I am in favor of the city lighting not only the streets, but going into the commercial lighting business. When we do that, business men can get light so cheap that we shall see Calhoun street as bright at midnight as at noon. When we do that, too, our laboring men, as well as our wealthy men, can have the best light in their homes at a price within their income. The poor ought to have as good light as the rich, and with the city in the commercial lighting business they can have it."

—Frank J. Baker—Second Ward.—

"Municipal ownership of the lighting plant is in the public interests and the levy for that purpose is just and right."

—John O'Ryan—Third Ward.—

"I favor municipal ownership and I gave my support to the plan for the city to build its lighting plant. The plant will be finished in due time, I think, and I hope that we shall have it ready to go into operation on the last day of our present contract."

—Henry C. Baade—Fourth Ward.—

"I believe the city should own its own municipal plant for lighting, but I believe the thing can be accomplished without raising the levy."

—Joseph F. Zurbuch—Fifth Ward.—

"I have also always favored municipal ownership, and supported the proposition to establish a city lighting plant. I believe and will demand that we should have the municipal plant all built and ready to begin operation the night of the expiration of our present contract with the Jenney company."

—Sylvester McMahon—Sixth Ward.—

"I am also in favor of municipal ownership and believe that we should have our plant all equipped and ready to start immediately upon the expiration of the contract with the Jenney company."

—Henry C. Schwartz—Sixth Ward.—

"I am also in favor of municipal ownership, and have given the electric light plant project my hearty support always. I believe we should build our lighting plant as soon as possible and begin to operate it as soon as our present contract expires."

—Peter J. Scheid—Seventh Ward.—

"I have always supported the municipal lighting project and believe we have acted wisely in providing for city ownership of a plant. I will advocate the early erection of a plant, so that we will be ready to furnish light as soon as the McDonald contract expires."

—Edward C. Miller—Eighth Ward.—

"I am also on record from the beginning of the municipal lighting question as in favor of city ownership of the lighting plant, and I will work for a consummation of that object at as early a date as possible."

—Henry W. Kohrman — Eighth Ward.—

"Municipal ownership, I believe, solves the problem that needed solution. I believe the city will gain a great deal by having its own plant for furnishing light, and I am in favor of completing the plant for which the levy has been made at the earliest possible day."

—Charles P. Sordelet—Ninth Ward.—

"On the franchise question I am in hearty accord with the precedent established by the present council. * * * I have long been an advocate of the city owning its own lighting plant, and indorse the action of the council in making the levy for the purpose."

—John C. Figel—Ninth Ward.—

"It was impossible to see Mr. Figel to get an expression of his views for the public, * * * but it can be reliably stated on the authority of those of his neighbors who have discussed public questions with him, that Mr. Figel is in hearty accord with the democratic platform, and if elected will stand by the principles therein enunciated."

—William E. Gerding—Tenth Ward—

"I am on record in favor of the erection and equipment of a municipal lighting plant."

—William J. Hosey—Second Ward.—

(Journal Comment.)

"When William J. Hosey was elected to represent the Second ward, three years ago, those who knew him best predicted that he would make his mark. He has done it, and it is a mark that will shine. He has left the impress of his honest character, intelligent reasoning and judicious methods upon the records of the municipality. * * * His first utterances to attract attention were in favor of municipal ownership, a policy which has since been adopted. Mr. Hosey was asked for his opinion on the leading issues, and his reply was: * * *

'My first utterances as a councilman, and all my subsequent acts, have been in favor of municipal ownership, and during my term I have seen the idea permanently adopted. I favor now, as always, a rapid completion of the city's lighting plant, built to furnish light for private patrons as well as for the public streets.'

TRANSMIT SPEECH WITHOUT WIRES

Interesting Experiments Are Given by Scientists in England.

New York, April 3.—An interesting series of demonstrations has been given at Alexandria palace of the apparatus of transmission and reception of signals and speech through the ground without the use of wires, cables the London representative of the Tribune. The inventors, a young Swedish electrical engineer trained in the United States, and a Devonshire electrician, were present, with Sir Girard Smith and other experts. The experiments were conducted without the pretense that a perforated system of installation had been worked out, and the practicability of dispensing with wires and masts and using earth currents of electricity for commercial, military and naval purposes was illustrated. A characteristic feature of the system was the peculiar combination of high potential discharges and low tension currents. Experiments with bombs proved that explosives could be syntonized within the same radius, so that all could be fired simultaneously or each in turn by means of earth currents without wires. The value of these tests for practical warfare was conceded by the military experts. Other experiments illustrated the transmission of Morse dots and dashes and musical sounds by wireless telephone.

EDITOR WILKINS AT HOME.

Washington, April 3.—Beriah Wilkins, editor and proprietor of the Washington Post, who has been seriously ill in New York, has returned to Washington. He has been making steady progress toward recovery and suffered no ill effects from the trip.

CLAIMS HE HAS A SIDEWALK PERMIT

Emmett Martin Brought Into Court on Affidavit— Police Notes.

Police court was nearly a blank this morning, one case being docketed but continued until next Tuesday. As intimated yesterday the board of works yesterday filed an affidavit against Emmett Martin for tearing up and relaying a sidewalk on Buchanan street, contrary to the ordinances and without first having gotten permission from the board and specifications from the city engineer. Mr. Martin appeared and stated that he had taken out a permit last fall, but had mislaid it and wanted time to hunt it up. On this representation the case was continued. Chairman Eggemann stated that Mr. Martin would have to hunt a long while before he would find his permit because none had been granted, else it would show on the record. Again, Mr. Martin is laying his sidewalk out to the curb instead of up to his property line and Mr. Eggemann said that he knew no such permit had been issued to Mr. Martin or anyone else during the past two years, the board having long ago decided not to allow sidewalks to be built that way on account of the unsightly job it made when connecting with other sidewalks set up to the property line.

POLICE NOTES.

The bicycle pilferer is again getting busy and daily reports of stolen bicycles are made at the police station, while occasionally officers pick up stray wheels on the street where they have been left by absent-minded riders or mischievous boys. Officer White last night picked up a bicycle at the Lakeside drug store which was minus an owner. It was taken to the station house.

Mrs. Shell, of 336 East Washington street, heard a man walking about in the house last night at a little after midnight and awakened her husband. The disturbance frightened the invader, who hurriedly went out through the front door in full sight of Mrs. Shell. An investigation showed that nothing had been taken and in the darkness no description of the man could be given.

Mrs. Jansen, living at 2024 Gay street, reported that someone had stolen a new copper boiler from her premises night before last. Mrs. Jansen is a poor woman who makes her livelihood by taking in washing and can ill afford her loss. The police will try to locate the missing utensil.

Officer Collins last night found a handsome hand-painted medallion pin, gold mounted and bearing a picture of a cluster of American beauties.

Complaints have been made by residents on Thompson avenue concerning a man who is blasting stumps from some vacant lots in the vicinity to the jeopardy of window lights in the vicinity and the annoyance of the residence. It was ordered that the man should be notified to discontinue his operations under penalty of being prosecuted.

Officer Strodel was on the sick list last night and did not report for duty.

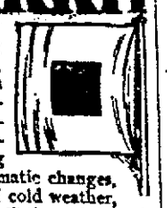
LOOK OUT FOR CATARRH



The cold-wave flag means zero weather, icy, moisture-laden winds, and the beginning of winter in earnest. To Catarrh sufferers there is nothing cheering in these climatic changes, for with the return of cold weather, all the disagreeable symptoms of Catarrh appear: blinding headaches, dizziness, a stuffy feeling about the nose that makes breathing difficult, chest pains, and as the disease progresses, a discharge of nauseating matter from the throat and nose keeps one continually hawking and spitting.

Catarrh is a most disgusting disease. The foul mucous secretions that are constantly dropping back into the stomach contaminate and poison the blood and is distributed throughout the body, and it then becomes a deep-seated, systemic, persistent disease that must be treated through the blood, for it is beyond the reach of sprays, washes, powders or external treatment of any kind.

S. S. S. soon clears the system of all Catarrhal matter and purges the blood of the irritating poisons, thus effectually checking the further progress of this serious and far reaching disease.

Look out for Catarrh in winter, for cold stirs the blood and causes excessive secretion of mucus and brings to life all the slumbering poisons that make Catarrh the most abominable of all diseases. S.S.S. keeps the blood in such perfect order that cold waves cause no alarm and the change from the heat of summer to the rigors of winter produce no hurtful effects.

Write us if you have Catarrh, and our Physicians will advise you without charge. Book on Blood and Skin Diseases free.

COL. JACK CHINN IS AT LAST VANQUISHED

Two Cincinnati Constables Take Away His Weapons to Satisfy Debt.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 3.—Colonel Jack Chinn, the hitherto invincible Kentuckian, went down to defeat here yesterday in an encounter with a constable who came to levy on the colonel's belongings. With his defeat the colonel suffers the deepest humiliation, for the burly constable, not content with punching him, relieved him of two pocket editions of coast-defense artillery and a big bowie knife and left the colonel en dishabille after the encounter.

Colonel Chinn came here several days ago and registered at the Gibson house. He purchased a bill of goods amounting to probably $75 at Burkhardt Brothers and agreed to pay the bill later. Fearing that the colonel would leave the city and forget the bill, the firm sent its colored messenger to collect it. This angered Chinn and with his stentorian voice he frightened the messenger so badly that he took to his heels. The firm then brought proceedings in Squire Dumont's court and Constables William Critchell and Charles Timberlake started for the hotel with attachment papers.

The colonel was found in his room quietly eating supper. When the constables announced their business he grew indignant and rushed at them to throw them out. Critchell, who is a strapping big fellow, stood his ground and met the colonel's mad charge with a well-directed right which sent him sprawling over his supper table. He recovered quickly and went for his weapons. The constable was just as quick and while Critchell held him Timberlake relieved him of his two nine-shooter 48-calibre magizine revolvers and a bowie knife. These they carried off to satisfy the claim.

WILL BE BURIED IN ENGLAND.

Nice, April 3.—The body of Count Zborowski, who was killed in an automobile accident April 1, was taken today to the railroad depot. The casket was covered with flowers and many automobilists and friends of the deceased gathered at the depot bringing more floral pieces. One was from the automobile club of Nice, another was sent by the automobile club of Great Britain and Ireland, and a third bore an inscription showing it came from the German automobile club. The latter was sent by Prince Frederick of Hohenlohe-Oehringen. Count De Mont Sauvin, brother-in-law of the late Count Zborowski, represented the family. Baron De Zulen, president of the automobile club of France, made a brief speech during which he said the count died like a soldier. The train with the body on board will start from here this evening. The remains will be interred in England.

WENT OVER EMBANKMENT.

Northfield, Vt., April 3.—A mass of rock which had fallen on to the tracks of the Central Vermont railroad near here caused the wreck of the northbound express running from Boston to Montreal today. The locomotive and three cars plunged over an embankment forty feet, but only one man, Timothy O'Neil, of Northfield, the fireman, lost his life. All on board the train were violently shaken, but none of the train hands or passengers was injured beyond a few slight bruises.

NEW OCEAN SERVICE.

London, April 3.—The Atlantic Transport Line will inaugurate its fortnightly service between Southampton and New York with the steamer Menominee April 22. The boats will carry saloon passengers, in addition to freight. This will in no way interfere with the American line's sailings every Saturday.

SPIRIT NEWS FROM BEECHER.

New York, April 3.—Rev. I. K. Funk, of the firm of Funk & Wagnalls, one of the leading religious publication houses of the country, admitted yesterday that he had received what he believed to be a genuine message from the spirit of Henry Ward Beecher, in life his warm friend.

"I am not prepared to go into details until I have completed the investigation I am now making," said Dr. Funk. "Certainly I have heard a most remarkable message. Whether its origin is telepathic or clairvoyant or clairaudient, or whether it proceeded from an individuality in the next world through the instrumentality of the medium I am not at this moment prepared to say."

For more than a year Dr. Funk has been investigating the possibility of communicating with disembodied spirits in the next world. Recently a medium conveyed to him an alleged message from Mr. Beecher which called to mind a long-forgotten transaction between them when Mr. Beecher was living, and described accurately the location of a lost coin.

GIVES PRIZE TO INSTITUTE.

Paris, April 3.—The Figaro states that Dr. Emile Roux, the sub-director of the Pasteur institute, intends to donate the Osiris prize of $20,000, which has just been awarded him, to the Pasteur institute. This prize was founded by L. Daniel Osiris, a wealthy Parisian, to be awarded to the person that the institute of France considered the most worthy to be thus rewarded. The institute of France chose Dr. Roux as the recipient.

TWO WERE KILLED; A DOZEN INJURED

Frightful Results of Head-On Collision on Big Four Near North Manchester.

North Manchester, Ind., April 3.—Two men killed, a dozen injured—half of them seriously—both engines and many cars a worthless mass of wreckage, are the net results of the disastrous head-on collision between north-bound passenger train No. 36 and an extra freight train on the Big Four railroad at Rose Hill, three miles north of North Manchester, Wednesday night.

The dead:

Charles Seavy, engineer, of Wabash.

Will Hagens, brakeman, of North Manchester.

The injured:

B. P. Grouch, baggageman, Jeffersonville, shoulder dislocated.

J. P. Brady, fireman, Wabash, back and hands badly bruised.

George Lyons, brakeman, Anderson, leg broken.

H. C. Holloway, mail weigher, Wabash, injured internally.

Omar Lausey, Indianapolis, cut about the face.

G. Z. Black, passenger conductor, Anderson, back and side hurt.

A. T. Elgelow, pasenger, Bryan, O., hurt about the head.

H. H. Dixon, Grand Rapids, Mich., spine injured.

A. H. Brown, Leesburg, Ind., head bruised.

R. C. Lewis, Anderson, hip injured.

Charles Blank, Elwood, cut about the face.

George Gallman, Fostoria, Ohio, bruised about the head and arms.

The trains were moving at high speed when the crash came and Engineer Seavy, of the passenger, and Brakeman Hagens, of the freight, were caught in their cabs and crushed to death before they could jump. Fireman, Brady, of the passenger train, and the engineer and fireman of the freight train escaped by jumping. Both engines were demolished, but none of the passenger cars left the tracks. The passengers were hurled from their seats and many were severely bruised. The wreck is said to have been caused by a mistake in orders, but the blame has not yet been fixed. The tracks were blocked until yesterday morning. All the passengers were able to continue their trips. The injured trainmen were taken to Wabash.

AWAIT STRIKE ORDERS.

JONES—PERRY.

On the 25th of March occurred a wedding in Chicago, which will interest many young people of this city. Miss Blanche Perry, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Perry, and Chas. H. Jones, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Jones, formerly of Fort Wayne, were united in marriage by Rev. J. M. Driver, pastor of the People's church, of Chicago, at the home of the bride's parents, No. 3534 Rhodes avenue. Mrs. Gregory W. Smith was matron of honor and Judson H. Felters acted as best man.

The bride was gowned in point d' esprit over white taffeta silk, with pearl ornaments. The parlors were beautifully decorated with smilax and pink and white roses. The presents to the bride were numerous and handsome. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The father of the bride is a prominent south side merchant. The groom for the past three years has held a prominent position with the Illinois Central railroad company, with headquarters in Chicago.

The happy couple are now on their wedding trip in the east and upon their return will reside at the home of the bride's parents for the present.

ONE OF THE TRIUMPHS OF MODERN SURGERY.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in they may be healed without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail.

TORTURING DISFIGURING

Skin, Scalp and Blood Humours

From Pimples to Scrofula From Infancy to Age

Speedily Cured by Cuticura When All Else Fails.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in Eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurements, as in acne and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures, blood purifiers and humour remedies of the civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take Cuticura Resolvent, to cool and cleanse the blood. This complete local and constitutional treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours of the skin, scalp and blood, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure when all else fails.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 50c. per vial of 60), Cuticura, 50c., Soap, 25c. Depots: London, 27 Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Rue de la Paix; Boston, 137 Columbus Ave. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors.

BASEBALL

HOW DAYTON LINES UP.

Central League News Interchange Special.

Dayton, O., April 3.—The Dayton management has signed about all the players needed for the local team. Already 23 good men have affixed their names to contracts, and it is thought that of this number, ten will be released before the season begins. It is a problem in the mind of Manager Youngman, as to which players to let go. They all look so good, that he is taking a big chance in releasing any of them, but it must be done.

The last man signed by the Dayton management, is Tom Hart, a college pitcher, who has been attending St. Mary's institute in this city. Dayton had a crack local league last year, and Hart was one of the pitchers playing with a club that was a member of this league. He made a remarkable record, never allowing more than three hits in any one game during the entire season. He gives more promise than any other player ever seen on the local diamonds, and it is thought that he will be a strong addition to the team.

Hart comes from Mason, W. Va., the same place that Myers, another Dayton pitcher hails from. It seems strange that the Wheeling management did not lasso one or the other of this promising pair.

Youngman was after Jim Outcault, a once college player, who is well known in Dayton. Outcault played some years ago with Denison college, when old Dan Daub started in as a pitcher. He caught Daub for several seasons, and it was thought here that Daub and Outcault could be secured for the Daytons. Youngman is of the opinion that Dan has seen his last days as a pitcher, and that he is all in. Outcault was signed by one of the Hoosier clubs before the Central league was organized, and he, too, was lost to Dayton. Outcault has many friends in Dayton, among them Frank Withoft, the college pitcher, who is now secretary of the local police department; Chat Bosler, who was also a college pitcher, but who later engaged in the practice of law in Dayton and represented this district in the Ohio legislature; William F. Chamberlin, now a prominent Dayton manufacturer, and others. He will no doubt get a good warm welcome when he comes to Dayton with his team.

Bill Lander, one of the Dayton owners, is well pleased with the schedule as adopted by the Central. He says it seems fair enough to him.

"They had us almost shut out in the cold, cold world," said Bill, when he returned home after the Marion meeting. "You see, it was like this: Mautner, of Fort Wayne, wanted the whole earth with a little whitewashed fence around it. That's all right for him to want it, and he's a good fellow at that, but I told those fellows that they expected to draw their largest share of the receipts from Dayton, which is the largest town in the circuit, and that they would have to show me where I was 'at.' I finally kicked around until I got what I thought was fair, and the result is that we get 11 Sunday games at home. We could get along with that number of games here if we didn't play another game in the whole season, and we expect to make enough in those 11 Sunday games to pay all our expenses during the season and to have enough left over to live on next winter. Besides the 11 Sundays at home, we have nine Sunday games away from home. I don't know how we will come out away from home, but I guess it will be all right. Dayton didn't get any holiday games. I didn't insist on them as they very seldom pay here. During the entire season we have only three days off, not counting on rain, of course."

Youngman has returned to Dayton to remain and the players will report on the 6th.

A number of exhibition games have been arranged with out of town teams and these will be played during the last three weeks of April. Some National league teams have been scheduled and Dayton fans can bank on a good appetizer before the season opens up. Several good semi-professional teams have also been signed for exhibition games.

TERRE HAUTE GOSSIP.

Central League News Interchange Special.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 3.—More interest is being taken in base ball among the Terre Haute fans than ever before in the history of the city. Crowds are visiting the park each afternoon and Manager Walters is beginning to get his men in shape for the first practice game Saturday with the Rose polytechnic club. Decatur, a Three-I league aggregation, will be here for games Sunday and Monday. Although these are to be early exhibitions, they will be closely contested. Terre Haute welcomes an opportunity of showing its superiority since coming into a faster class after breaking away from the Three-I league with Evansville.

Improvements are being made in the ball park to give it a seating capacity of 4,500, an increase of 1,500 over last year. Six tiers of seats are being added to the bleachers and a pavilion is being erected to the south of the grandstand. A new club house, furnished with lockers, is being built for the home players.

Eighteen men have been signed for the Terre Haute aggregation. Manager Walters has decided to carry fifteen men until June 1, when the number will be cut down to thirteen. There will be three pitchers and one change catcher, to be used as a utility man.

Exhibition games arranged for Terre Haute include those with St. Louis of the National league; Boston American league, Milwaukee Western league, Sioux Indians, and with Bloomington and Decatur of the Three-I league, in addition to a number of exhibitions with amateur and college teams. The last three days before the season opens will be given to light practice. South Bend is here for the opening game April 30.

Terre Haute is well fixed for players. Five pitchers and three catchers are to be given a trial. Walters, second base; DeArmond, third base; Scott and Torrence, pitchers; Beecher and Thompson, fielders; Kling, short-stop, and Richardson, first base, played here last season. These are all fast men and they have the advantage of playing together before. Terre Haute fans will not support a club unless it is at least in the first division.

L. D. Smith, president of the local association, is opposed to the criticism heaped upon Mautner, of Fort Wayne. He says there is little danger of Mautner failing to protect his interests by vigorous protests whenever the Hebrew manager believes they are necessary. Mr. Smith, however, says Mautner has a reputation for being anything but a "quitter." He believes Mautner will have a strong team for Fort Wayne.

Cecil Ferguson and Paul Talbot, two youngsters from Terre Haute, have been signed by South Bend. Both are pitchers. Of the two, Ferguson has shown the most ability. He played with Lansing in the Michigan state league last season after leaving the Terre Haute high school. He was given a trial here. Many of the enthusiasts wanted the local management to sign him, but the support given by the spectators seemed to make Ferguson nervous and he was unable to do his best work.

D. M. Nixon.

LOCAL NOTES.

The Stars defeated the Yales in a well played game yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 8. Batteries, H. Huffman and A. Dinklage, C. Rust and I. Miller.

The Red Birds have organized on the south side for the season. The players are all under 18 years and are captained by R. Waltemath, 523 Pontiac street, to whom all challenges should be sent. The Birds are open for all kinds of business.

Evansville Courier: "The mileage as given in the schedule adopted by the league directors was not so small as some of the other schedules called for. The average for each club will be 4,889 3-5 miles. The following is the mileage for each club: Evansville, 5,317; Terre Haute, 4,821; Anderson, 4,326; Marion, 4,279; Dayton, 4,847; Wheeling, 5,893; South Bend, 4,770, and Fort Wayne, 4,857. The total mileage is 39,115 miles.

ROUT LADRONES IN MINDANAO

Force that Captured Surigao Are Pursued by Troops and Constabulary.

NO DETAILS RECEIVED

Scouts and Constabulary in Two Fights With Ladrones in Cavite Province.

Manila, April 3.—A force of troops and constabulary, commanded by Captain Perry, overtook and routed on the shore of Lake Mainit, March 31, the band of convicts and ladrones who recently attacked and for a time held possession of Surigao, island of Mindanao.

The details of the fighting have not been received. Captain Perry is pursuing the enemy.

A mixed force of scouts and constabulary, numbering 175 men, defeated 200 ladrones in two fights near Idan, province of Cavite, yesterday, killing seven of the enemy and wounding twelve. The government force had no casualties.

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

At the meeting of the board of works last night the assessment rolls for the opening of McLachlan street were confirmed. Several property owners were present to object to their assessments, but were overruled.

Assessment rolls were also confirmed for the vacation of an alley in Rau's addition, for the vacating of a portion of old Main street to make a straight intersection with Bluff street, and for vacating the alley between Leith and Killea streets from the alley east of Hoagland avenue to Barnett's out-lots.

In the absence of Chairman Eggemann, Member Doehrman presided.

The franchise granted the hot water company to build a plant in the city has not yet been signed by the mayor, who says that it has not yet been presented to him for signature. Meanwhile the company is doing nothing and will not until the ordinance becomes a law.

Building permits have been issued to Mrs. Sophia DeWald, house on DeWald street, brick, $6,000; Hilgeman Bros., house and barn on Woodland avenue, wood and brick, $14,000; H. C. Brooks, house on DeWald street, $1,000; R. L. Romy, repair house on East Jefferson street, $500.

It will be interesting to know that in almost all instances the published list of official voting places gives the old numbers instead of the new. This is a sorry commentary on the progressiveness of the persons having that matter in charge.

NOW IN COURT'S HANDS.

Nashville, April 3.—The Southern Pacific case was taken under advisement by Judge Lurton shortly after noon today. The decision will be announced in Louisville next Monday. Senator Foraker, in closing his argument, said the important question was restraining the Union Pacific from voting the Southern Pacific stock at the annual meeting. He contended that the two roads were competitors; that the tendency was towards centralization and monopoly. Judge Lurton announced, upon the conclusion of the argument of Senator Foraker, that it would take several days to go over the records, and that he would file his decision next Monday with the clerk of the United States court at Louisville. Some of the counsel returned to their homes today and the others will leave tomorrow morning.

SITUATION IS UNCHANGED.

There is no change in the strike situation of the painters and paperhangers and it is evident that it will be weeks before a settlement of any kind will be reached. The strikers claim gains from the ranks of the non-union men and state that they expect to make every non-union painter and paperhanger in the city members of the union in a very short time. A meeting of the master painters and paperhangers will be held one week from tonight, and it is expected that some action toward a settlement of the difficulties will be taken.

IN GRAVE PERIL.

San Francisco, April 3.—The little steamer Albion River, which left here yesterday for the ports of Albion and Point Arena on the Mocino county coast, is ashore at Bodega Point, in Sonoma county. The Albion carries forty-one passengers and a merchandise cargo. There is a heavy swell on and unless help arrives before the tide comes in the vessel will undoubtedly go to pieces.

NEW CONCERN INCORPORATED.

The Fort Wayne Steam Specialty company is the name of a new concern which filed articles of incorporation at Indianapolis today. The concern is captialized at $15,000 and the directors are E. W. Puckett, manager of the Fort Wayne Oil Supply company; William Egger, and O. R. Manlove. The company will manufacture a scale solvent for steam boilers and will also handle high class steam specialties. Mr. Puckett stated this afternoon that his company would lease a factory and begin the manufacture of the scale solvent at once.

PASSED BURNING STEAMER.

New York, April 3.—The steamers El Cid, from Galveston, and El Monte, from New Orleans, which arrived today, both reported having passed on April 1 a burning steamer, which, from the description Scammell Bros., consignees of the cargo of the steamer John J. Hill, say may be that steamer. The John J. Hill left Jacksonville, Fla., March 26, for New York, and should have reached port three days ago.

On Tuesday the Morgan line steamer Excelsior passing Jupiter, Fla., signalled "Philadelphia, captain, ten rescued, lost five." At the time it was thought the men on the Excelsior were from the steamer Winnifred, which was reported to have foundered. The Winnifred has since arrived at Southport, N. C. It is likely the Excelsior intended to signal "John Hill, Philadelphia," etc., the Hill belonging to Philadelphia.

DESERTING SOLDIER SHOT.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 3.—Harry Pulver and another private named O'Brien attempted to escape from prison at Fort Thomas last night. Pulver was shot and later died. His mother lives at Astoria, L. I. Lion Parsons, of company B, Third infantry, was struck by Pulver and O'Brien with crowbars and sustained scalp wounds and a broken nose, but he will recover. It was so evident that Parsons shot Pulver in self-defense that no arrest was made. O'Brien was placed in irons in a dungeon.

OVERDUE STEAMERS SAFE.

Paris, April 3.—The ministry of marine today received a dispatch from St. Pierre, Miquelon, announcing the safe arrival there of the overdue French steamers Burgundia and Notre Dame du Salut, which sailed from St. Malo, France, March 17 for St. Pierre, each having about 200 passengers on board, chiefly crews for the French fishing fleet, the owners of fishing boats and the families of the owners.

BARGE AND CREW LOST.

New London, Conn., April 3.—The tug Sweepstake, just arrived here, reports the loss of the barge Fitzpatrick off Long Island last night. The barge's boiler blew up and she sank immediately, with five men.

MINT THIEF SENTENCED.

San Francisco, April 3.—The jury in the case of Walter N. Dimick, accused of stealing $30,000 from the United States mint, reached a verdict of guilty today. Sentence will be imposed next Wednesday.

CITY BREVITIES.

Alfred Krauss has commenced suit against Jane Graffe on replevin; demand, $100.

August F. Mauier has taken a position in I. G. Stafford's wholesale paper house.

Rev. J. C. Breckinridge has returned from a visit with friends in Pennsylvania.

Cases of diphtheria were reported at 1137 Lake avenue and 2129 Lafayette street today.

The closing quarterly meeting of Berry Street M. E. church will be held this evening.

Rev. Henry Roehner, of Hoagland, will preach this evening at Christ's Lutheran church on "Prayer." Service will begin at 7:45.

Mrs. Charles Curtice and Mrs. Badd will entertain the South Side Aid society next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Curtice, Butler and Harrison streets.

Benjamin J. Ankenbruck has taken a position as city salesman for I. C. Stafford, the wholesale paper dealer. W. T. Hall, formerly salesman for the Stafford concern, is now with the Wayne Biscuit company.

Henry Schwehn, recently sent to Jeffersonville for embezzling money from the American express company, writes to his brother that he is employed in the foundry department at the southern reformatory. He was formerly employed in a similar capacity at the Bass works in this city.

PRIMARIES OPEN AT 4.

The polls of the democratic city primaries will open in all the wards of the city at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and votes will be received up to 7 o'clock for candidates for the democratic nomination for city councilmen, as well as for delegates to the city convention tomorrow evening and for members of the city central committee. In nearly every ward there is much activity, and it is expected that a large vote will be polled.

HANLON'S RAPID RISE.

Frisco Lad Who Stood Off Young Corbett a "Comer."

THE STORY OF HIS CAREER.

Began as an Amateur Boxer—He Has a Strong Punch, but Lacks Speed. Likes the Crouch—Defense Is One of His Specialties.

The meteoric development of little Eddie Hanlon from the obscurity of the amateur fighting class to the conspicuous position of aspirant for professional featherweight champion honors is the marvel of the veteran ringsters.

This San Francisco youngster, who recently in the Mechanics' pavilion in Frisco came very near snatching the laurels from Young Corbett, has become the idol of prize ring enthusiasts and the precious desideratum of ambitious managers. Hanlon's performance was uncommonly meritorious, and in consideration of his youth and comparatively brief experience it was positively amazing.

EDDIE HANLON.

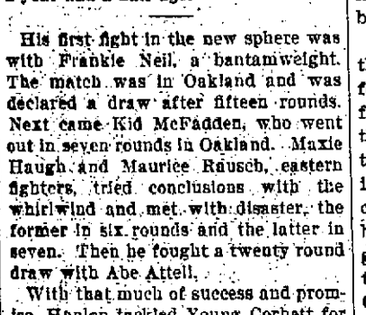
Hanlon was a schoolboy only three years ago, and his age now is a trifle under eighteen. He was a member of the Ariel club, a pugilistic and boating organization. As cockswain in the club crew Hanlon acquired a taste for sport and soon became interested in the boxing matches held weekly at the club headquarters.

The older members were quick to discover that Hanlon had an abundance of pluck and good judgment. All he needed was skill, and much of this he soon acquired by careful practice. In a remarkably short time he had demonstrated his superiority over all the youngsters of his weight, and in search of harder men to conquer he broke into the professional rank. That was about a year and a half ago.

His first fight in the new sphere was with Frankie Neil, a bantamweight. The match was in Oakland and was declared a draw after fifteen rounds. Next came Kid McFadden, who went out in seven rounds in Oakland. Maxie Haugh and Maurice Rausch, eastern fighters, tried conclusions with the whirlwind and met with disaster, the former in six rounds and the latter in seven. Then he fought a twenty round draw with Abe Attell.

With that much of success and promise, Hanlon tackled Young Corbett for the featherweight championship. It was in this battle he exhibited the qualities that in the opinion of experts justify the prediction that he is the coming man in his class. The word "coming" is used advisedly, because it is apparent that Hanlon has not yet developed the superior generalship that comes of experience, the stamina that matured years will furnish and the greater skill that is the product of serious training.

His style of fighting is peculiar, and he has nothing of the litheness and grace of the pretty boxer. He has a great punch for a lad of his inches and the 130 pounds he fights with, but his action was clumsy. He appears slow on his feet, but his wonderful ability to guard himself with his arms and hands is a puzzle to his opponent. His blows would seem to lose some of their strength from his habit of doubling up in his crouch and disturbing his balance.



HANLON'S FIGHTING POSE.

When an amateur he favored the standup style, but crouching has been largely substituted. Hanlon is anxious to meet Young Corbett again, but before doing so he will take a good rest. He has been fighting almost continuously for two years and thinks he owes himself a vacation.

Washington, April 2.—Colonel Sanger, acting secretary of war, left here this afternoon for Shiloh, Tenn., to represent the government at the dedication of the nineteen mounments to be erected on the battlefield at that place by the state of Indiana.

NEXT WEEK

PRASS-REED COMPANY WILL OPEN NEW SHOE STORE.

FINELY FURNISHED— BRILLIANTLY LIGHTED.

Mammoth Stock and Best Talent in the City to Sell It.

An event looked forward to with great interest by the people of Fort Wayne is the opening of the new Prass-Reed Company Shoe Store, 718 Calhoun street, Seidel block. It was intended to have opened the store April 1st, but owing to the completion of minor details in the furnishings, slowness of factories in getting out orders, and the congested condition of freight on the railroads, the opening has been delayed until next week, possibly Wednesday or Thursday. When the doors are thrown open to the public there will be shown the finest furnished, best stocked and largest shoe store ever opened in Fort Wayne—a store thoroughly up to date in every detail.

The front has been remodeled and now presents a dazzling appearance, with its large show window finished in pure white tiling and expensive French plate-glass mirrors. Down each side of the long room is natural wood shelving reaching from floor to ceiling, with shelf room for 8,000 pairs of shoes, and every compartment filled. In the rear is a balcony, finished in natural wood. Here will be the office of the firm, the cashier's desk, bundle-wrapping department, etc. Along each side of the room will be rolling ladders, that the stock from the upper tiers of shelves may be rapidly procured. There will also be cash and package carriers from all parts of the big room. The floor will be covered with rich carpets and down the center will be a row of massive natural-wood settees, upholstered in the most expensive leather. The front entrance will be ornamented with a handsome rubber rug 6½ by 10 feet. The furnishings from beginning to end are the finest that money can buy and demonstrates that the new firm appreciates the fact that nothing is too good for the Fort Wayne public. It also proves that they are gentlemen with an artistic taste for the beautiful. The room is lighted by a number of arc lights, whose power is augmented by numerous incandescents, illuminating the store at night with the brightness of the noon-day sun.

In the stock will be found everything good known to the shoe trade for men, women or children, running from the highest-priced shoes made, through the medium grade, down to the low-priced goods, each shoe in its grade being the very best that can be sold for the price. There will be scores of different styles in every grade from which to make your selection. When you wear a Prass-Reed Company shoe, no matter what the price, you can rest assured that you have on the very latest thing out.

Another feature of this strictly modern store is one that will be a great innovation in Fort Wayne shoe stores. It is a free shoe-shining department. Whether you are wearing Prass-Reed shoes or not, you will be perfectly welcome to step in and have a shine absolutely free at any and all times. This invitation is extended especially to the ladies, as special provisions will be made to have a shining department for them apart from that for gentlemen.

Mr. Edward Ofenloch, to whom was due in a great measure the popularity of the shoe department of the People's store, has accepted a position with the Prass-Reed company, as has also Mr. Theodore Kayser, who for the past eleven years was a prominent salesman at the Jacobs shoe store.

The exact date of the opening will be announced in a few days and it will be the most elaborate affair of its kind that the people of this city have ever had the pleasure of attending.

Messrs. Prass and Reed are both gentlemen of years of experience in the shoe business and are acquainted with every detail, from the leather in the rough to fitting the finished product to the foot. Mr. O. A. Prass will spend several months here getting the new store properly launched, while Mr. Marc W. Reed, who is one of the best known shoe men on the road, will continue his usual avocation.

SHAFER-BARKLEY.

Thursday evening Rev. J. W. Lake, pastor of Calvary U. B. church, united in marriage Miss Minnie E. Barkley and William W. Shafer, at his home. The young people live near Monroeville. Mr. and Mrs. Shafer will make their home on a farm in Adams county.

For several years past suicides have been increasing in Chicago at a ratio far in excess of the increase of population. Three hundred and fifty-six suicides in 1900 were followed by 399 in 1901 and 439 last year.

CONSPICUOUS IN A BALLROOM.

Flakes of Dandruff on the Collar and Shoulders of a Gentleman in Full Dress.

This is the thing you quite frequently see in the ballroom—a man's black dress-coat literally covered with dandruff.

It must be annoying to the wearer, and certainly not a pleasant thing to observe. But dandruff can be eradicated. It is a germ disease that will some day cause baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the hair-destroying germ and stimulates the hair to a rich, abundant growth; it does more—keeps the hair soft and pliant.

Furthermore, Herpicide is a most pleasant toilet accessory; pleasing or odor, and cooling to the scalp.

MINERS GO ON STRIKE.

Shamokin, Pa., April 3.—Number four slope of the Luke Fidlar colliery, owned by the Mineral Railroad and Mining company, was tied up today by the company hands going on strike because they were dissatisfied on account of being docked a half hour yesterday afternoon for quitting work at 4 o'clock. The men started to work at 7 a. m. and claim they put in the full nine hour day. An effort is being made to tie up the entire mine of 1,100 employes.

HE DIED SUDDENLY FROM HEART TROUBLE

Frank C. Treuchet Expired as He Entered a Saloon—Other Mortuary Matters.

Frank C. Treuchet, 65 years of age, whose home was at 444 Buchanan street, entered the Koehler saloon at 2528 South Calhoun street about 8 o'clock Thursday evening in company with a party of friends. A moment later Treuchet suddenly threw his hands above his head, gasped slightly and sank to the floor.

Believing the man had merely fainted his friends carried him to the door, where it was hoped fresh air might revive him, while a messenger hastened for Dr. A. E. Van Buskirk, living but a short distance away. Before the physician arrived it was plain life was extinct, and physicians say his death was practically instantaneous. Treuchet, it is said, had not been drinking. The remains were removed to the family residence, where at 10 o'clock today Dr. Van Buskirk conducted an autopsy under the direction of Dr. W. W. Barnett, the coroner.

It revealed that the immediate cause of Treuchet's death was the presence of a clot as large as a hen's egg in the left ventricle of the heart, almost completely filling the ventricle. There were also plain evidences of mio-carditis or inflammation of the heart of long standing, and a firm adhesion of the apex of the heart to the pericardium, a condition which had never before come under the observation of either of the physicians. Nearly twenty years ago Treuchet was severely injured in a fall from a load of hay, and the effects of this mishap were still visible.

Mr. Treuchet was a native of France, but had spent nearly all his life in Allen county, living upon a farm near New Haven until two years ago, when he removed to this city. Since residing in Fort Wayne he had been employed as a street cleaner by the city. Surviving are the widow and nine children—Frank, Joseph, Charles, Louis and Edward Treuchet, Mrs. Joseph Schlenk, Mrs. Charles Hood and Miss Tillie Treuchet, of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. John Rose, of New Haven.

Funeral services will be held at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning from the house and at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Catholic church.

NIX.

Mrs. Mary Nix, wife of Joseph Nix, the well-known shoemaker, died at 3:45 o'clock this morning at the family home, 735 East Wayne street, after an extended illness. Mrs. Nix's death was due to a complication of diseases.

She was born in Rochester, N. Y., forty years ago, and had been a resident of Fort Wayne about twenty years. The surviving members of the family are the bereaved husband and one son, J. Edward Nix. There is also a brother, J. E. Purcell, a newspaper man at Rochester, N. Y. Mrs. Nix was a most estimable woman and had many friends.

The funeral services will be held Monday morning at 8:30 from the residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church, of which the deceased was a devoted member.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Stahl.—Funeral services of Mrs. Frederick Stahl will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the residence, 507 Masterson avenue, and at 2 o'clock from Bethel Evangelical church.

Thiebold.—Funeral services of Christian Thiebold will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 1229 Wells street, Rev. Ruhl officiating.

FOUR FINGERS CUT OFF.

Louis Peters, of West Superior street, lost the four fingers of his right hand in an accident at the Union Manufacturing company's factory on Maiden Lane this morning. Peters was operating one of the cutting machines and in attempting to adjust the material beneath the knife, his hand was caught, and the four fingers were taken off at the knuckles. Peters was taken to St. Joseph hospital where Dr. W. H. Myers dressed his injuries.

LANE WILL HAVE TO PROD HIS MEMORY

He Failed to Appear in Judge O'Rourke's Court—News of the Courts.

The next time William Lane, the Adams township saloonkeeper, is indicted by the grand jury he will probably pay a little attention to the order of the court. The recent industrious grand jury found four true bills against Lane, charging him with violating the Nicholson law in selling to minors, allowing minors to loiter and allowing others than members of his family in his saloon during prescribed hours. He was duly arrested and gave bonds for his appearance with Alphonse F. Robbe as surety. Later he was arraigned and his cases were set for trial today. When the case was called about a dozen witnesses were present, so was the jury and Lane's attorney, Chichester Holder, but no defendant appeared. The attorney confidently assured the court that his client would be present at 10 o'clock, but when that hour came around Lane still was most conspicuous by his absence. Judge O'Rourke waited a few minutes longer and then commenced doing things. He first declared the bond forfeited, the amount being $100, which the surety will have to produce. He then issued a warrant for Lane's rearrest and placed the warrant in the hands of the sheriff and then set next Monday, April 6, as the date for the trial of three of the cases.

COURT NOTES.

Julia E. Furste was today divorced from John H. Furste and was allowed to resume her maiden name, Julia E. Smithers.

B. Federspiel has made his final report as executor of the will of Magdalene Federspiel. It shows a balance for distrbution of $3,500.

The circuit court jury was this morning discharged until next Monday on account of the failure of William Lane to appear for trial.

Notary Meyers, who had a desk in the auditor's office for several days, has relinquished his stand. Auditor Smith said that while he had a perfect right to do business there, he yielded to the objections made to the presence of a notary's desk in the office.

Judge Adair has declined to act further as special judge in the Brandstatter partition case which has been dragging in the circuit court for over a year. Judge Adair has heard the evidence on the exceptions filed to the report of the former commissioners and as he has already ruled on practically all the points to be again brought up he thought best to retire. A new special judge will now have to be appointed by Judge O'Rourke.

The township assessors have decided to make a material increase in the valuations of Allen county real estate. On unimproved lands the average valuation will be placed in the country at about $30 per acre as against $23.06 last year and for improved lands $37 as against $28.86 last year. The increase will make a material increase in the assessed valuation of the county, being about 30 per cent.

Attorneys E. V. and Frank Emrick and Judge Hench for the prosecution and Attorneys Henry Colerick and Samuel Morris for the defense are today making oral arguments before the state supreme court in the appeal for a new trial for Charles Dunn.

Mrs. Charles Gillett has gone to Mt. Clemens to join her husband at the bedside of their son, Wilkes Gillett, who is seriously ill from inflammatory rheumatism.

PRESIDENT TALKS OF MONROE DOCTRINE

Says It Must be Upheld and a Big Navy Maintained to Uphold It.

Chicago, April 3.—Six thousand persons in a hall, the seating capacity of which is only 5,000, last night gave enthusiastic greeting to President Roosevelt when he stepped upon the stage of the Auditorium.

When the president, escorted by the members of the local committee, appeared on the platform he was met with great enthusiasm, the vast crowd rising to its feet and supplementing its hearty cheers with waving programs and fluttering handkerchiefs.

The president acknowledged his reception and at once took his seat between Franklin MacVeagh, chairman of the committee, and Mayor Harrison, who was to deliver the formal address of welcome.

As soon as his voice could be heard Mr. MacVeagh in a few words announced that the nation's chief executive would be made welcome to the city by Mayor Harrison, who then spoke briefly, extending to the president a hearty welcome and expressing the pleasure felt by the people of Chicago at his visit and offering to him their best wishes for a happy and pleasant trip during his two months of vacation.

BEGINS ADDRESS.

The president bowed his thanks to Mayor Harrison and to Mr. MacVeagh, who introduced him to his audience and expressed his pleasure at the cordial reception extended to him upon the first scheduled stop in his long trip. Then turning directly to the audience, the president proceeded to deliver his address. He had some difficulty in beginning for the reason that the cheers that had greeted his first appearance in the hall burst forth with renewed vigor and it was several minutes before he was able to proceed. The address throughout was received in the most cordial manner.

The address was as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen—Today I wish to speak to you, not merely about the Monroe doctrine, but about out entire position in the western hemisphere—a position so peculiar and predominant that out of it has grown the acceptance of the Monroe doctrine as a cardinal feature of our foreign policy; and in particular I wish to point out what has been done during the lifetime of the last congress to make good our position in accordance with this historic policy.

"Ever since the time when we definitely extended our boundaries westward to the Pacific and southward to the gulf, ever since the time when the old Spanish and Portuguese colonies to the south of us asserted their independence, our nation has insisted that because of its primacy in strength among the nations of the western hemisphere it has certain duties and responsibilities which oblige it to take a leading part thereon. We hold that our interests in this hemisphere are greater than those of any European power possibly can be, and that our duty to ourselves and to the weaker republics who are our neighbors requires us to see that none of the great military powers from across the seas shall encroach upon the territory of the American republics or acquire control thereover.

WHAT DOCTRINE MEANS.

"This policy, therefore, not only forbids us to acquiesce in such territorial acquisition but also causes us to object to the acquirement of a control which would in its effect be equal to territorial aggrandizement. This is why the United States has steadily believed that the construction of the great isthmian canal, the building of which is to stand as the greatest material feat of the twentieth century—greater than any similar feat in any preceding century—should be done by no foreign nation, but by ourselves. The canal must of necessity go through the territory of one of our smaller sister republics. We have been scrupulously careful to abstain from perpetrating any wrong upon any of these republics in this matter. We do not wish to interfere with their rights in the least; but while carefully safeguarding them to build the canal ourselves under provisions which will enable us, if necessary, to police and protect it and to guarantee its neutrality, we being the sole guarantor. Our intention was steadfast; we desired action taken so that the canal could always be used by us in time of peace and war alike, and in time of war could ever be used to our detriment by any nation which was hostile to us. Such action, by the circumstances surrounding it, was necessarily for the benefit and not the detriment of the adjacent American republics.

CANAL QUESTION DISCUSSED.

"After considerably more than half a century these objects have been exactly fulfilled by the legislation and treaties of the last two years. Two years ago we were no further advanced toward the construction of the isthmian canal on our terms than we had been during the preceding eighty years. By the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, ratified in December, 1901, an old treaty with Great Britain, which had been held to stand in the way, was abrogated and it was agreed that the canal should be constructed under the auspices of the government of the United States, and that this government should have the exclusive right to regulate and manage it, becoming the sole guarantor of its neutrality.

"It was expressly stipulated, furthermore, that this guaranty of neutrality should not prevent the United States from taking any measures which it found necessary in order to secure by its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order. Immediately following this treaty congress passed a law under which the president was authorized to endeavor to secure a treaty for acquiring the right to finish the construction of, and to operate, the Panama canal, which had already been begun in the territory of Colombia by a French company. The rights of this company were accordingly obtained and a treaty negotiated with the republic of Colombia. This treaty has just been ratified by the senate. It reserves all of Colombia's rights, while guaranteeing all of our own and those of neutral nations, and specifically permits us to take any and all measures for the defense of the canal, and for the preservation of our interests, whenever in our judgment an exigency may arise which calls for action on our part. In other words, these two treaties, and the legislation to carry them out, have resulted in our obtaining on exactly the terms we desired the rights and privileges which we had so long sought in vain. These treaties are among the most important that we have ever negotiated in their effects upon the future welfare of this country, and mark a memorable triumph of American diplomacy—one of those fortunate triumphs, moreover, which redounds to the benefit of the entire world.

VENEZUELAN TROUBLE.

"The trouble which arose in connection with the republic of Venezuela was because of certain wrongs alleged to have been committed and debts overdue by this republic to citizens of various foreign powers, notably England, Germany and Italy. After failure to reach an agr ement these powers began a blockade of the Venezuelan coast and a condition of quasi war ensued. The concern of our government was, of course, not to interfere needlessly in any quarrel so far as it did not touch our interests or our honor, and not to take the attitude of protecting from coercion any power unless we were willing to espouse the quarrel of that power, but to keep an attitude of watchful vigilance and see that there was no infringement of the Monroe doctrine—no acquirement of territorial rights by a European power at the expense of a weak sister republic—whether this acquisition might take the shape of an outright and avowed seizure of territory or of the exercise of control which would in effect be equivalent to such seizure. This attitude was expressed in the two following published memoranda, the first being the letter addressed by the secretary of the state to the German ambassador, the second the conversation with the secretary of state reported by the British ambassador:

" 'Department of State, Washington, Dec. 16, 1901.—His Excellency, Dr. Von Holleben, etc.: Dear Excellency—I inclose a memorandum by way of reply to that which you did me the honor to leave me on Saturday, and am, as ever, faithfully yours. John Hay.

" 'Memorandum: The president in his message of the 3d of December, 1901, used the following language:

MAKES POSITION PLAIN.

" 'The Monroe doctrine is a declaration that there must be no territorial aggrandizement by any non-American power at the expense of any American power on American soil. It is in no wise intended as hostile to any nation in the old world.' "

"The Monroe doctrine is not international law, and though I think one day it may become such, this is not necessary as long as it remains a cardinal feature of our foreign policy and as long as we possess both the will and the strength to make it effective. This last point, my fellow-citizens, is all important, and is one which as a people we can never afford to forget. I believe in the Monroe doctrine with all my heart and soul; I am convinced that the immense majority of our fellow-countrymen so believe in it; but I would infinitely prefer to see us abandon it than to see us put it forward and bluster about it, and yet fail to build up the efficient fighting strength which in the last resort can alone make it respected by any strong foreign power whose interest it may ever happen to be to violate it.

"Well, in the last two years I am happy to say we have taken long strides in advance as regards our navy. We wish a powerful and efficient navy, not for purposes of war, but as the surest guaranty of peace. If we have such a navy—if we keep on building it up—we may rest assured that there is but the smallest chance that trouble will ever come to this nation; and we may likewise rest assured that no foreign power will ever quarrel with us about the Monroe doctrine."

THINKS GILBERT STRONG.

(Indianapolis Journal.)

Judge S. M. Hench, of Fort Wayne, who is in the city, was asked to do a little "suggesting" in the way of a state democratic ticket, but he declined. He said that he had not even thought about the question and did not believe that the democrats over the state were thinking about it yet. He was interested in the race for the republican nomination for governor, however, and expressed the opinion that Lieutenant Governor Gilbert, of Fort Wayne, will be the man that the other candidates will have to beat if he decides to enter the contest.

"I have known Mr. Gilbert but a short time," he said, "as he has not been at home a great deal of his time since he moved to Fort Wayne, but as a lawyer I have observed that he is a mighty shrewd man, and his easy address and that perennial smile of his ought to make him a good politician. I am inclined to think that he will be a formidable candidate if he enters the race."

In personal appearance Judge Hench is the double of Capt. D. F. Allen, of Frankfort, and while he was standing in the corridor of the state house yesterday afternoon talking to an acquaintance two or three men passed him and greeted him as "Captain Allen." In 1891 and 1893 Judge Hench was a member of the state legislature, and as Captain Allen was here at that time their striking resemblance resulted in many amusing incidents. "The confusion never bothered me," said the judge, "but Captain Allen finally protested when they began presenting my laundry bills to him."

Judge Hench is a large man, the picture of robust health, but in reality he is badly crippled and is entitled to draw a pension of $30 a month for permanent disabilities received during the civil war. At the battle of Fredericksburg he intercepted a confederate shell, a fragment of which tore away almost all of his right ear, while another piece struck him in the left side and injured him severely. The surgeons were able to patch him up and to give him a right ear that is almost as good as his left so far as appearances go, but it is deficient in hearing. He carried a sliver of iron in the injured ear for eighteen years, although he was not aware of it until it worked its way out.

THE MARKETS

Chicago, April 3.—Wheat opened easy today under the influence of indifferent cables and liberal Argentine shipments, with May unchanged to ¼c to ⅜c lower, at 73⅞@74c to 74¼c. After selling at 73⅝@73¾c, it advanced to 74⅛c on reports of a shortage in the French crop. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 260 cars, which, with local receipts of 21 cars—none of contract grade—made total receipts for the three points of 281 cars, against 233 last week and 212 a year ago.

The bullish foreign advices brought out a good demand for a time, which carried May up to 74⅝c, but the market quickly declined again on heavy liquidation, the leading long disposing of a considerable line. The latter half of the session was easy and after selling at 73½c, May closed ⅜@½c lower, at 73⅜@73⅝c.

The opening on corn was easy in sympathy with wheat and May was unchanged to ⅛c lower, at 43¾. Trading was light and featureless and from lack of support there was a decline to 42⅞c. Local receipts were 115 cars, with one of contract grade.

Dullness prevailed the entire session and closing prices were easier, with May ¼c lower, at 43c.

Oats opened steady at ⅞c advance, May selling at 34c. Wet weather in the oat belt caused firmness at the start, but the action of other grains exerted its influence and the market cased off to 33¾c. Local receipts were 162 cars. Trading in provisions was light and featureless.

The opening was weak on a decline of 5c to 10c in the price of hogs at the yards. May pork opened 2½c lower, at $17.80; lard was off 2½c to 5c, at $9.97½, and ribs showed a loss of 5c, at $9.90.

The Close.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—May, 73¾@73⅞c; July, 70½c; Sept., 68⅜c.

Corn—April, 42c; May, 43c; July, 43¾c; Sept., 43½c.

Oats—April, 33⅝c; May, 33⅝@33¾c; July, 30⅝c; Sept., 27¾c.

Pork—May, $17.72½; July, $17.17½c; Sept., $16.85.

Lard—May, $9.90; July, $9.75; Sept., $9.72½@9.75.

Ribs—May, $9.70; July, $9.57½; Sept., $9.50.

Rye—May, 50c; July, 49¾c.

Barley—Cash, 42@53c.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.11½; S. W., $1.10; May, $1.10.

Timothy—April, $3.30.

Clover—April, $11.75.

Hogs—Receipts, 22,000; tomorrow, $10,000; left over, 3,899; market 10c lower; mixed and butchers, $7.05@7.30; good to choice heavy, $7.35@7.55; rough heavy, $7.10@7.35; light, $6.80@7.15; bulk of sales, $7.10@7.35.

Sheep—Receipts, 3,000; sheep and lambs steady; good to choice wethers, $5.90@6.65; fair to choice mixed, $4.50@5.50; native lambs, $5.50@7.50.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, April 3.—The opening dealings in stocks today showed no change from the recent sluggish and apathetic conditions. There was a fall of 1⅜ in Sugar and of 1⅛ in Louisville and Nashville, but the changes otherwise were narrow and insignificant and about equally divided between gains and losses.

Sales by dispirited holders, coupled with aggressive bear selling of the specialties, accelerated the downward tendency of the market. Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific, Colorado Fuel, Sugar, Amalgamated and Metropolitan Street railway lacked effective support and their weakness soon affected the general market. Colorado Fuel yielded 2¼ to 54½, and Pennsylvania and Southern Pacific lost 1⅛ each, touching the lowest figures on the movement. New Haven dropped 4 points, Delaware and Hudson 2½. General Electric 2 and Amalgamated, Car preferred, Metropolitan Street railway, Tennessee Coal, Northwestern, St. Louis Southwestern and Erie first preferred 1@1¼. The market steadied a trifle on short covering, but the demand was not urgent enough to help the list much.

Signs of liquidation in Southern Pacific unsettled the market and there were heavy sales all through the list. Southern Pacific was forced down 3⅜ to 55¼, and Pennsylvania touched 135, a new low level for the movement. All the principal active stocks declined a point or more and a few 2 or over. Adams Express sold at a decline of 15 points and American Express advanced 3 and reacted 5. General Electric dropped 4. Covering by shorts caused a rally of 1¼ in Southern Pacific and a point in Union Pacific, Erie first preferred, Canadian Pacific, Amalgamated, Sugar and Colorado Fuel. The market promptly became dull at the rally.

Bonds were heavy at noon.

Absence of fresh offerings on the noon rally stimulated buying, which was largely aided by a rise in Brooklyn Transit to 67⅞, a gain of 1⅜. St. Paul, Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Missouri Pacific, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Reading, Metropolitan Street railway and Manhattan about recovered their morning losses, and there were some substantial rallies in other weak stocks.

Buyers on the decline realized on their holdings and as the demand was not large enough to absorb the offerings, prices fell back all around. Southern Pacific reacted to 55⅝c, but other prominent stocks ruled fractionally above the lowest and rallied again before the end of the hour.

Recovery gathered headway and the demand from the shorts to cover became urgent. Southern Pacific jumped to 60 and fluctuated violently below that. The level of the whole market rallied to above last night. Net gains reached a point or more in Union Pacific, St. Paul, Atchison, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Wabash preferred, Rock Island preferred and Reading. Brooklyn Transit rose vigorously 2⅜ over last night. With the demand from the short satisfied and evidence of unloading on the advance, prices fell back. The closing was dull and easy.

ICE IN YOUR RIVERS

Ice Congests and Stops Commerce—So Uric Acid Makes Rheumatic Pains.

Imagine how your bones would feel if they were bumped and buffeted by a river of floating ice. If you have Rheumatism you know the twinges and spasms of pain in your body.

Uric acid is the cause of it—it floats in your blood like ice in a river, clogging and poisoning your entire system. You cannot be freed from Rheumatism until you dispel the Uric acid. Athlophoros will dissolve it, and you will note immediate lessening of pain.

Your entire system will feel better, and if you have had kidney trouble or any organic difficulty you will note a marked improvement at once—one bottle will prove if it is helping you, and you will find the dollar to be your best investment if Athlophoros works on you as it does on others. If your druggist doesn't keep it send $1 to The Athlophoros Co., New Haven, Conn. If your case is peculiar, write us about it.

A Traveler's Experience.

A party of gentlemen were gathered in the lobby of one of the leading hotels the other evening, when an argument arose as to what Red Raven Splits really were. One gentleman who was traveling for a big house in Indianapolis, ventured the assertion that notwithstanding the extensive advertising, out of five in the party not three could tell what Red Raven Splits were, and to what uses they were put. When the matter was put to a test it was found that the Indianapolis man had won, and in the following language he told his experience with Red Raven Splits:

"I have found, when traveling from place to place, taking my meals at different hours, sometimes on the train and sometimes at the hotel, that my system became deranged, resulting in a sluggish liver, dizziness in the morning, lassitude and loss of appetite. I had seen the advertisements of Red Raven Splits and chanced to ask a druggist friend of mine what they meant. You can imagine my surprise at finding Red Raven Splits were the remedy par excellence, for just such a disorder as I was suffering from. I tried a bottle before breakfast the next morning and found prompt relief. I learned that they kept it not only at the drug stores, but at any bar in any hotel, and since then in all my travels, when suffering from headaches, indigestion or nausea, I have been promptly relieved by Red Raven Splits."

WILL ARRIVE AT AN AGREEMENT

Wabash Officials and Heads of Brotherhoods Believe Peace is in Sight

MR. BLAIR LEAVES TODAY

Will be Accompanied to the Springs by Mrs. Blair and Mrs. J. M. Dinnen.

St. Louis, April 3.—It is said an agreement will be reached within the next few hours whereby the threatened strike on the Wabash system will be averted and the grievance of the employes settled on a basis satisfactory to all concerned. The settlement, it is said, will not be provisional, but will stand after President Ramsey's return from Europe.

Si Cheng En Route East.

Si Cheng Tung Liang Cheng, Chinese minister to the United States, and his somewhat numerous suite, passed through the city over the Pennsylvania last night, en route to Washington. There were forty-eight persons in the party, three of them children. Their special train was run as the second section of the limited and passed the city at 9:45. Because of his ability to converse with the passengers, Conductor M. O. Ginty had charge of the train. During the short stop at the depot, the minister and his party got out of the cars and walked up and down the platform.

Weekly Engine Output.

During the week just closing the engine output at the Pittsburg shops has been one for each work day. They were Nos. 7178, 7156, 7361, 7091, 7158 and 7071. Only two were taken in for repairs—Nos. 7100 and 285. The small number of incoming engines is not on account of lack of cripples, but because of lack of space in the erecting department. The carpenters and millwrights who are engaged in transferring the machinery and making room for the masons in the work of building the new shop have encroached upon the erecting side to the extent of reducing the number of stalls fully one-half.

Mr. Blair Will Leave Tonight.

Supt. S. K. Blair, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis, will leave this evening on Nickel Plate train No. 3 for Chicago, and thence over the Monon to West Baden, where he will remain until sufficiently recuperated to resume his official duties. The superintendent will be accompanied by Mrs. Blair and the two children and by Mrs. J. M. Dinnen, and the trip will be made in the private car of General Superintendent A. W. Johnston. Mr. Blair is rapidly improving and expects to make the journey and arrive at the springs in good shape.

Ray to Logansport.

Frank Ray, who was engineer of maintenance of way of the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley road, with headquarters at Zanesville, has been transferred to Logansport, to take the place of J. A. McGrew, transferred to Pittsburg. This probably is the last of the changes in the maintenance of way department of the Pennsylvania for the spring. Mr. Ray never worked on the Fort Wayne and is known only to a few of the Pennsylvania western division men.

Foremen on a Jaunt.

C. L. Hepp, foreman of the blacksmith shop, and James Murray, foreman of the boiler shop, left last night for Springfield and thence to Moberly on business for the Wabash company. David Murray has charge of the blacksmith shop and Patrick Maley has charge of the boiler shop during the absence of the regular foremen. Messrs. Hepp and Murray will return home Sunday night.

Will Go on a Visit.

Several of the Pennsylvania engineers and firemen or their wives are preparing for a visit with relatives out of the city. Included in the list is Mrs. G. C. Burchard, who will go to Van Wert; Mrs. H. Hamilton, who will go to Columbia City; Mrs. R. R. Farris, to Etna Green; Engineer and Mrs. J. D. Ryan, to Coffeeville, Kan., and Fireman and Mrs. F. E. Wilmore to Marion.

Ordinary household accidents have no terrors when there's a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the medicine chest. Heals burns, cuts, bruises, sprains. Instant relief.

Eczema, scald head, hives, itchiness of the skin of any sort, instantly relieved, permanently cured. Doan's Ointment. At any drug store.

Russell Denies Charge.

Harry O. Russell requests The Sentinel to deny the report that he is serving in the capacity of "spotter" for the Nickel Plate or any other railway company. Mr. Russell says that he has been informed that that charge was made against him and he declares it is a falsehood. Supt. A. W. Johnston issued an order two years ago prohibiting drinking or visiting saloons by all men in the train service and that order is just as rigidly enforced today as it was shortly after its appearance. As a result some of the men have been caught offending against it and have been reprimanded and a few of them discharged. The circumstances surrounding some of the cases led the men to think that a "traitor" was in their midst, and some one placed that charge against Mr. Russell. Harry Russell was for many years employed on the Nickel Plate, first as a switchman and later as a brakeman, but ill health compelled him to retire some months ago, and since that time he has done but little work. He is a good fellow and those who know him best say he is not capable of serving in any capacity which would bring harm upon the railway boys and his friends.

Had Knee and Ankle Sprained.

While handling a big engine frame yesterday, the piece got beyond control of the men and as a result Blacksmith Henry Tonsing had his right knee and ankle painfully sprained. He will be off duty some time in consequence of the accident. C. W. Rodenbeck, of the same shop, is sick.

The First Excursion.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton company will be the first to enter the summer excursion business this year. April 19 that road will run an excursion from this city and intermediate points to Dayton and the Soldiers' home, and the officials anticipate a big crowd.

Moving His Family Here.

M. A. Kinney, general foreman at the Nickel Plate round house and shops in this city, is moving his family here from Stony Island. He has leased the house on West Third street in which Conductor and Mrs. Tom Bell lived several years.

Shipping Fans to Cuba.

A consignment of fan motors, the latest invention in that line of Mr. J. J. Wood, left the Fort Wayne Electric works this morning for Havana, Cuba. A 100-horse power motor for parties in Boston, Mass., also left the works this morning.

Industrial Notes.

The Wabash commenced putting in some more foundations for machinery at the shops this morning.

E. St. John, tinner at the Pittsburg shops, and his wife, have gone to Plymouth to visit relatives.

R. W. Shaw quit a position at the Wabash boiler shop this morning. J. Butler took a position there this morning.

Engineer Leonard Lang resumed his duties at the Bass shops yesterday, after an absence on account of an injured foot.

A large number of the employes of the Western Gas works attended the funeral of their late comrade, Charles J. Hunt, yesterday.

Mrs. H. P. Jensen, whose husband is a blacksmith at the Pittsburg shops, will make a visit with friends in Chicago in a day or two.

A twenty-horse power motor is being installed at the Pennsylvania round house to run the machinery for light engine repairs.

Charles Finder, a passenger conductor on the Logansport division of the Vandalia, has entered upon his thirty-first year in that service.

The special train on the Grand Rapids and Indiana yesterday, for the accommodation of the teachers, carried 375 passengers into Richmond.

Switchman G. W. Thiebolt, of the Wabash, lost a pair of nose glasses yesterday that were valued quite highly because of their associations.

Boilermaker W. H. Bieler, of the Pittsburg, who had been visiting in Chicago, came home quite sick last night and will not be able to work for a day or two.

An immigrant train of five coaches and a baggage car passed through the city over the Nickel Plate last night. It stopped long enough to allow the passengers to take supper.

Engineer S. C. Keeler, who was in the city yesterday, resumed his duties this morning on one of the Pennsylvania local freight trains, between Valparaiso and Chicago. He has been sick and off duty for three months.

Yard Engineer Charles Swinney, of the Pittsburg, is sick and off duty. Engineer J. Doescher and Fireman J. Koch, of the same road, are off duty on account of the sickness of their wives.

Herman J. Miller, clerk at the Electric works, has sold his new house on Masterson avenue to Mrs. Sarah McBride; consideration, $3,200. Mr. Miller intended the house for himself and would have moved into it in a few days had he retained it. It was not quite completed when the sale was made.

H. L. Walton, jr., and Nicholas Van-Dewater have taken positions at the Pittsburg round house, and W. S. Gingery has resigned his position there.

On account of poor drainage, water covered Fairfield avenue between the Pittsburg and Wabash tracks to the dept of several inches this morning. The sidewalk was also covered with water at one place for awhile.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the B. R. T. and their husbands or other male relatives were nicely entertained by Miss Bessie Miller, of West Main street, last evening.

The English railway men who have just completed a tour of America for the purpose of studying her railways, marveled most at the tonnage of the freight cars. In England only ten tons are carried on a car, while forty and fifty tons is a carload in America.

Charles Watterson, a Nickel Plate brakeman, was taken sick while out on the road yesterday and had to abandon the run. He was hit on the breast by a coupling lever several days ago and the sickness is the result of that accident.

Contractor Sproul sends word to the Pennsylvania officials that he will arrive here with a big lot of workmen Sunday afternoon and the following morning will commence clearing the ground for the east end of the addition to the machine shop.

The storm this morning drove all lumber handlers and many other laborers who are exposed to the weather from their duties. The Pittsburg lumber yards wore a Sunday air this morning when the reporter passed that way.

A Wabash car inspector found the mangled body of Dr. Luther Cornelius lying on the tracks in Peru Wednesday night. The dead man appeared at the round house a few hours before in a drunken condition and was led away by one of the employes. That was the last seen of him alive.

John Merriett, who has called Nickel Plate engine crews for the past four or five years, has resigned to take a position in the Fort Wayne Electric works. He is succeeded by Charles Crosby, a son of Engineer Crosby, who has been employed in various capacities at the Nickel Plate for some months.

Engine 7373, which was pulling Pennsylvania train No. 18 yesterday, Engineer J. A. Keplinger at the throttle, poked out a cylinder-head at Upper Sandusky and had to be relieved. The accident was due to a key in the piston head coming loose. A similar accident happened to engine 7374 a few days ago.

A DROP IN COFFEE.

New York, April 3.—Coffee took another drop on the New York exchange today, going below four cents for No. 7 grade for the first time in the history of the exchange. April coffee was quoted at 395. The lowest quotations up to yesterday in any previous period of decline was in 1899, when the same grade of coffee went to 410. An immense world crop of coffee this year is the reason for the decline.

AGAIN BEHIND THE BARS.

Toledo, Ohio, April 3.— Thomas Toledo, Ohio, April3.—Thomas Keegan, who with "Topeka" Joe and two other postoffice robbers attempted a sensational escape from the Toledo jail in 1901, has been landed behind the bars here again, to answer to the charge of robbing the West Toledo postoffice. Keegan was caught in Los Angeles, California last October. He claims that his principal partner in crime "Topeka" Joe is in England.

NO OPIUM

In Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no opium in any form, or other harmful substance, in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. There is nothing so prompt and effectual as it for the relief and cure of colds, croup and whooping cough. It is the mothers' favorite and has well merited their confidence and esteem.

The General Culture club met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Line, 324 West Williams street, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. George C. Cramer led the discussion on the Shakesperean lesson, after which Mrs. S. E. Hamlet read an interesting magazine article on "The Relation of Club Work to the Schools." The club very much regrets the loss of one of its most ardent members, Mrs. J. C. Houck, who has moved to Findlay, Ohio.

How He Lost His Vote

I had stopped on an Arkansas highway to talk to a man about the state election held the preceding day, but he replied that his vote had been challenged by a woman and lost, and he had taken but little interest in the matter.

"How did a woman come to challenge your vote," I asked, "and why didn't you swear your vote in?"

"Waal," he replied, looking furtively about, "I'm not much up on law, so I didn't hold out fur what might hev bin my rights. When I left Indiana two y'ars ago, I also left the ole woman thar, and I sorter figgered when she turned up at the polls that it was p'raps jist as well not to quote law or git into any dispute if I could help it.

"Yes, I lost my vote, but I hain't feelin' bad about it. Fact is, stranger, when I think how I outrun Hanner in that two mile race through the bresh I feel powerful thankful that only my vote was lost—powerful thankful. Kin yo' spar me a pinch o' terbacker? Seems like it has a soothin' effect on my nerves, and I can't say when Hanner may bob up again and gin me another run fur life."

Disclaimed Glory.

"What's your name, my lad?"

"John L. Sullivan. But I ain't de prizefighter, honest."—San Francisco Examiner.

His Business.

While Lord Charles Beresford was in New York he told of one of his tenants who conducted a small undertaker's establishment in Waterford. One day he met her and asked how the business was getting along.

"Grand, me lord!" she exclaimed. "I now have the luckiest little hearse you ever saw. Glory be to goodness, it was never a day idle since I got it."—New York Times.

One Girl's Wisdom.

George—Miss Wilkins—Edith—I love you. Will you make me the happiest man on earth by sharing my humble lot?

Edith—No, George; I dislike the idea of camping out, but if you'll hustle around and get a comfortable house on the aforesaid lot I'll see what I can do in the way of boosting your happiness.—Chicago News.

Has a Record Himself.

Barker—How could we ever get along without street cars?

Parker—Oh, we could survive. The world waited over 1,800 years for street cars.

Barker—That's so. And, by jeeminy, I've waited quite a lot for them myself.—Kansas City Journal.

Didn't Tell.

"You mean old thing, now! You said you wouldn't tell Maude about my being engaged, and you went and did, so there!"

"I didn't do any such thing! I didn't tell her at all! I just—I just asked her if she knew!"—Baltimore News.

Ridiculous.

Nursegirl—I never take care of a baby for less than $25 a month.

Mrs. Hyfly—I couldn't think of paying that. My Parisian maid charges only $40 for taking care of Fido.—New York Herald.

Homeopathy.

Biddle—So you are a believer in homeopathy?

Noble—Sure. When I have the nightmare, I put a piece of colt's foot candy in my mouth.—Boston Evening Transcript.

With a Rush.

"Blood will tell."

"Why, yes. Telltale blushes are nothing but blood."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Baseball Enthusiast.

Once more the frail arbutus smiles
And wakes the soul to song;
The springtime blossoming beguiles
The heart, but not for very long.
For, though the sun kissed blooms be sweet,
Their joys ere long must pail,
My happiness is not complete
Till some one smites the ball.
The gentle birds who soar on high,
With songs so sweet and clear,
Are not so welcome to mine eye
As that well batted sphere.
In sylvan haunts I would not dwell
I'd rather, once for all,
Sit on a bench and whoop and yell
When some one smites the ball.
—Washington Star.

INSPECTING THE MILITIA.

Cincinnati, April 3.—Col. W. Carey Sanger, assistant secretary of war, arrived today from Washington and inspected the troops at Fort Thomas. Tonight he will inspect the first regiment, Ohio National guard. Tonight in company with Cornelius Cadle, chairman of the National Military Park commission, he will proceed to Shiloh battlefield, where on April 6 the twenty-one monuments erected by the state of Indiana will be turned over to the war department.

MURDERER HANGED.

Kittanning, Pa., April 2.—The first hanging in the history of Armstrong county took place today when Frank Dudash, who killed his cousin, Joseph Fedelen, on Oct. 16, 1901, was executed. The trap was sprung by Sheriff Bailey at 10:30 and just twelve minutes later Dudash was pronounced dead by the jail physician, death having resulted from strangulation. His remains were taken in charge by his wife.

The crime for which Dudash paid the penalty was the outcome of a quarrel between the two men which had taken place in their boyhood days in Germany, causing a feud which had never been settled until fate threw the two together in this country as grown men. While working in the same mine at Yatesboro, Fedelen provoked a quarrel and tried to stab Dudash. The latter procured a revolver and going to Fedelen's boarding house killed his enemy while he was eating supper.
